Missing letters

Each tweet has a post with an excerpt from a lore book associated with the Alliance War. The excerpt has several missing letters, which are listed below.

Lore books: Imperial Recall Orders and A Warning to the Aldmeri Dominion

Note: Confirmed to do nothing. They made a mistake and it was not working as intended. It was supposed to work the same as the missing letters in puzzle 2.

Still not sure what to do with these. Should they be rearranged in a certain order? Or should all letters be scrambled before reassembling them? Or it might be a cipher, although that's improbable due to the available letters (the vowels are usually the most used letters in an English sentence and that's also the case here, something like a Caesar cipher would have very few vowels at all).

The number in front of the missing letters indicates the twitter order.

Not the whole lore book is shown, only the sentences used in the twitter posts.

Imperial Recall Orders:

2 I have been directed to recall all troops under my command to the Imperial City. This order must be obeyed immediately.

3 All posts are to be abandoned; any supplies that cannot be carried must be destroyed.

5 Failure to comply with this command immediately will result in charges of desertion, no exceptions allowed.

1 Report to me at the northwestern bridge en route to the city.

Missing letters in the twitter posts:

2 e be - te - eria - rm - diate

3 mu - sid - ey

5 ur - o - ly - d im - har - tio - owe

1 me - nor - id

A Warning to the Aldmeri Dominion:

6 The overlords of the Aldmeri Dominion are hereby put on notice:

13 renounce your ambitions of aggression and return to your islands and jungles,

14 or the wrath of the Daggerfall Covenant shall fall upon you like a hammer of the Divines.

7 We are well aware that the Aldmeri plan nothing less than a return to the Elven domination of the other races, particularly Men and Orcs.

9 They wish to overturn the legacies of the First and Second Empires and wipe them from history.

11 This we shall not allow.

12 Never again will free Men and Orcs submit to the tyranny of Elven oppression!

4 The arrogant High Elves of Summerset are clearly the driving force behind the Dominion.

10 We of the Covenant have shown, through our acceptance of the Direnni, that we can live with the Elves in peace, but Queen Ayrenn insists on war.

17 Her invasion of the continent of Tamriel is nothing but naked aggression.

15 The Dominion has no territorial rights in Cyrodiil.

18 If the Altmer do not return to Summerset, their invading armies will be destroyed.

16 The Wood Elves and the Khajiit have traded with our Iliac Bay kingdoms for ages,

8 They must reconsider, or they must face our wrath.

Missing letters in the twitter posts:

- 6 lord - ald - nio - er - t on n
- 13 oun - ns - gre - nd ju
- 14 Dag - nt - fall - ik - me
- 7 aware th - n not - tu - dom - es - cs
- 9 hy - sh t - se - emp - them - ry
- 11 hi - lo
- 12 ve - e Me - ub - pp
- 4 ar - mer - driv - min
- 10 ha - ccep - ha - live - en - sis
- 17 sio - cont - in - gre
- 15 Domi - rrito - ts
- 18 the - et - mer - adin
- 16 Wo - tra - gdom
- 8 os - done - sup - s - n - be d

Can only be territory/territorial (or burrito). Should the letters even be kept together?

~~Aldmer* Dominion... however, most of these letters come from missing letters in these two specific words in the first place. Seems unlikely to just paste them back together again.~~ There is no lonely "i" to finish Aldmeri
