

Hey I saw your website, and I really like what you're doing, the vintage, unique styles look amazing! I've come up with some extra strategies that I think could really make a difference for you. If you'd like to see and experiment with some of them, feel free to get in touch.-Andrew.

If there are any mistakes or things I should change please let me know. THANKS. I switched it out and made it a lot shorter. I'm experimenting with a more basic shorter straight to the point view Note-This is also for a DM Not a gmail.
