

Certificate Requirements for Online Courses

If you'd like to receive a certificate of completion for your online course participation, we ask you to fulfil the following things*:

Good Attendance: Certificate recipients must not have missed more than 2 classes

Active participation: Those seeking a certificate, should be active each week in the course discussion sections, this can be sharing your thoughts on the readings or just asking questions.

Final Paper Submitted: Summary of your personal learning that happened throughout the course.

Please note, these are baseline requirements for receiving a certificate of course completion. These requirements are subject to changes/ additions at the discretion of the course instructor and the Biodynamic Association.
