

Jodie Cannon Kidd Biography

Jodie Cannon Kidd commenced her career in the construction sector, establishing several Women Owned Construction Companies. As an industry leader, she became the first female to join the Board of Directors for the Associated Builders and Contractors, paving the way for unprecedented opportunities for women. She also served on the Associated General Contractors Leadership board, contributing significantly to the development of professional cultures that fostered substantial success. Her passion for real estate emerged during this period, and she has been a licensed Real Estate agent since 1997.

In 2008, Jodie transitioned into the legal industry, collaborating with both plaintiff and defense lawyers to advocate for equitable justice. Over her 18-year tenure, she has cultivated numerous enduring professional relationships and is widely respected for her commitment and diligence. Jodie joined The Concussion Center, now known as the Neuroscience Specialty Centers, at the end of 2023. She is dedicated to delivering exemplary healthcare services that support patients, doctors, and attorneys.

Jodie is known for her philanthropic efforts and has devoted considerable time to charitable activities. Formerly a Hall County CASA, she currently serves on the Region 1 Advisory Board, Georgia Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Disabilities (DBHDD). She also supports Kids Chance, Families Against Violence In The Home (F.A.I.T.H.), Wounded Warriors, and The Children's Brain Tumor Foundation.

Jodie spends her personal time on the lake and with her amazing children and grandchildren.
