

Thank you for your prayers Church Family:

This living document of prayers and praises is updated weekly and sometimes daily as requests are made. Check back often! Double-click here if you have a prayer request. To get on the Prayer Chain email (sent weekly), contact Danielle at dkays@cccog.com

11/3/24

Bill James: Put Wills' service dog down yesterday. Please pray for Willis' heart.

Theresa Hilliard: Please pray for my sister Becky who is in an addict downward spiral and pray for my Mom and family as we navigate this difficult time.

PNA November Prayer Requests

11/1/24

Stephanie Robertson: I'm new. My first day will be this Sunday! I would like a prayer in helping with my financial situation. I recently had ACL Surgery and need strength in it, also that I get the job I applied for at UNFI. I hope this isn't selfish of me. I don't know how or what to ask from God. I just recently started back in my faith with our Lord Jesus. I know though he has always been with me guiding me. Thank you so much

10/28/24

Kayleen Morrow: First off, thank all of you! This week please pray for my dad to find his love of church as he just moved and is struggling with his relationship with God.

Vicki Green: Please pray for Dan who has cancer. He is having exploratory surgery this week. Pray that the cancer will be gone enough to proceed to the bigger surgery in January. Thank you, family.

Marc Spiegelberg: Chemotherapy is progressing. Please pray for Marc and Sandy as we travel this road. Thank you for your prayers!!!

Cindy Larson: Thankful for a safe, wonderful month of travel, meeting new people, and serving and learning about God's wonderful world.

Julie Hemenway: Have fluid on my left knee go to Dr. On Tuesday morning. Prayer that it will be an easy procedure. I am in a tremendous amount of pain. I just want to cry.

Rosalind Graham: Pray for my friend Amber Fox who was recently diagnosed with thyroid cancer.

Continued prayer for Connie Sundstrom and healing in hand.

10/22/24

Rick Sundstrom: Connie had a mild stroke earlier this week and is recovering but having difficulty with her right hand. Pray for healing for that hand.

10/20/24

Danette and Bryan Jones: Prayers for Amerika and her fiance as their wedding date draws near. Prayers that our grandson starts sleeping through the nights so Ashley can feel refreshed when she takes her exams every Monday and Friday.

Melissa Styger: Thank you for the many prayers following Jason's heart attack - his recent heart MRI has revealed a clear bill of health and a healthy heart! Ooo-eee! 😊

Kaleb Baldwin: I would like to request a prayer for myself. I pray that God calms my spirit Builds my patience and takes away my anger. I'm so tired of being angry.

Marc Spiegleberg: Marc will start his chemotherapy treatment on Monday. We would like prayers for healing. Thank you for your continuing prayers.

10/13/24

Julie Hemenway; Prayer for physical healing for me, Steve's sister Virginia is in Morton General had a stroke will be home in a couple of days. She is 82.

Marc Spiegelberg: Marc has another scan at Fred Hutchinson this week and will be starting chemotherapy on Monday 10/21. Thank you for your faithful prayers on my behalf. Sandy and I so appreciate the continued prayers.

Vicki Green: Dan had appt. With his cancer dr.on 10/7. She said the chemo is doing its job. He will talk to his surgeon next Tuesday to talk about the possibility of surgery and when. We know that God is in control of all this. We are praying for miraculous healing, but if not, then possible surgery which is very invasive and a long process to healing. God is always good and his will will always be done. Praise our King Jesus! We also need prayer to sell our motorhome. We need it sold so that we can pay off our home. Thank you for all your prayers. God bless you!

Shelby Thomas: Prayers for Happy Day this week!

Kaleb Baldwin: I would like to pray for my older brother. I'd like to pray that God place His hand in his new relationship and blesses them both in communication and love.

Sonjia Warren: Healing for chronic and hip pain and to be able to get rest and sleep.

9/30/24

Jean Kester: I would like prayer for my friend John. He had a below knee amputation last week and is now in a nursing facility in Tacoma at the age of 66, he is becoming depressed and unwilling to make any decisions he needs on his own behalf.

9/29/24

Nancy Carlson: I am glad to be a member of CCCOG. I am blessed by the messages and worship! I would like prayer for healing of my esophagus - I still have trouble swallowing food.

9/22/24

Karen Schessler: The biopsy showed carcinoma basal cancer. Surgery to cut it out is on Wed 25th.

Nancy Carlson: Pastor Devin, thank you for the challenging and inspiring message. Please pray for God's protection and His will for our granddaughter Kristal, her husband, and their daughter, Harper as they travel in a motor home to their new home on the East Coast.

Kaylene Morrow: Extra prayer for strength with organizing care for aging parents and honoring his independence and his needs. Also self control with my words and desire for gossip/judgment. Patience with my family and myself.

9/15/24

Linda Fast: I have a prayer request for Lincoln, a teenager who tried to take his life, seriously damaging his liver. He is in a hospital in Seattle.

Seth Orr: I pray for my sister, just to guide her through these rough times and have her follow Jesus through all walks of life.

Brayden Fuller: Please pray for my pregnant wife, our daughter sophia, and spoon to be born son Coleson.

Danette and Bryan Jones: Prayers for a former foster child of ours that finds God and serves Him. Prayers that our pumpkin patch can be a huge blessing to the CCCOG families and congregation.

Dawn Okrasinski: PTL! Thank you for all the prayers over my sister Sassy. God has blessed her and she has a diagnosis and treatment to follow. May He continue to watch over her and she travels back to Costa Rica.

Marc Spiegleberg: Marc will be having his last radiation on Tuesday in Seattle. Prayers for him for healing.

Cindy Larson: My 91 year old uncle passed away last week, so I went to his memorial in Denver this week. It was complex navigating relationships, traffic, travel arrangements, but God is good, and I was blessed to see everyone, including my oldest friend, from way back in our church nursery days! I am looking forward to spending time with him again in glory!

9/8/24

Theresa Hilliard: Pray for our trip across the country to visit Sean and Jessica. We will be in prayer for our beloved church and church family while we're gone

9/5/24

Trish Gadman has had a mild stroke and is currently at Centralia hospital undergoing testing. She will most likely be there until Friday or Saturday. She has no residual weakness from the stroke but they are concerned with her elevated blood pressure. Your prayers are much appreciated.

9/3/24

Update on Pam Daarud, her shoulder is doing much better and she is able to do more things now. Thank you all for keeping her in your prayers.

9/1/24

Vicki Green: Please continue to pray for Dan who has cancer. God is answering our prayers, but we don't want to stop now! Thank you! Also, please pray for the sale of our motor home. The money is needed. God is so good!

Joy Bailey: Pray for my friend Kim - her mom had a stroke and she is the caregiver for her husband (who has dementia) and her sister-in-law. Their family is having trouble navigating this new season.

Sonjia Warren: Praise for the staff, volunteers, and congregation of C3!

Cindy Larson: Please pray for Bible Study Fellowship worldwide as we start a challenging study of Revelation, that we will all grow closer and represent Jesus more faithfully

Theresa Hilliard: Praise for a good visit with Bill's nephrologist who sees stabilization and some improvement. Prayers for the schools and blessings on the kids as school begins again

Julie Hemenway: Continued prayer for physical healing, and for unspoken prayer concerning family members.

8/28/24

Shirley Eacker: My prayer request is for Greg and Rosa Watson, who are on vacation in Belgium. Rosa is in critical condition with complications from COVID. Please pray for her complete recovery as doctors to treat her and make decisions about flying her home to the United States.

8/25/24

Marc Spiegelberg: Marc will start his radiation treatment on Tuesday at Fred Hutchinson. It will be every Tuesday for 5 weeks. Please pray for healing and the ability to deal with the potential side effects. Praise God !!! Thank you for your prayers.

Julie Hemenway: Prayer for Jonathan who is in jail in Idaho.

Rex Ashmore: Pray for all of our Centralia children and staff as we embark on a new school year. Pray for me and any others who deal with anxiety on a daily basis.

8/20/24

Vicki Green: Just look what the Lord is doing! My husband, Dan, has cancer. His last CT scan showed that his cancer markers have gone from 120 to 30! Praise God!! We have a way to go yet but we are trusting Him for complete healing. Thank you for all your prayers! However, we need to sell our motorhome to help us pay for our manufactured home in Centralia. We have been living in the motorhome for 2 1/2 yrs as missionaries. We need sell it in order to help pay off our new home. Thank you for your prayers!

8/18/24

Duane and Sandy Benson: Pray for Aunt Herlene of Laurie Burton. She had surgery and is 85 years old and it is taking a toll on her. She is experiencing memory loss and mobility issues. Placed in rehab pending ability to return home. Praying for her to be able to return home, otherwise she goes to "memory care" facility.

Sonjia Warren: Prayer for guidance for potential new ministry.

8/14/24

Charlie Mitchell: Pray for friend Michael Clevenger; he fell yesterday and fractured his hand. Pray for healing.

8/11/24

Theresa Hilliard: Prayers for my youngest sister Becky making very poor choices and for our son and daughter Teddy and Ebony, her biological children, to love but not buy in.

Charlie Mitchell: We will be gone camping Aug 24-26. Pray for travel mercies. Please pray for all people who need it.

Sonjia Warren: Recently referred to an orthopedic surgeon and spinal surgeon. Praying for clarity, patience, and healing. I would love to have some relief so I don't have to have surgery at all. Thank you C3 Staff and prayer team for all you do for the church and community.

8/8/24

Shelby Thomas: Today, August 8th, Loren and Shelli Ackerman were returning home from Sturgis to Centralia on their motorcycle when it crashed in Missoula. While both were severely injured, wife and mother Shelli is currently on life support. They have three adult sons, Kevin, Tyler, and Scott of Centralia. Please pray for healing and recovery for father Lo and mother Sherri, and to support and comfort their sons during this horrifically devastating time.

8/6/24

Dawn Okrasinski: My sister is here from Costa Rica trying to get medical care. I took the week off to be available to run her places and be present. Please pray for her that she gets the help she needs and she is able to receive. God's plan is in place.

8/4/24

Theresa Hilliard: Praise God for so many blessings. Prayers for all of the married couples. Praise for the blessings. Prayers for peace, communication, and healing wherever it's needed

Cindy Larson: Please continue to pray for the group from our church and community who are at Welcome Home helping to build a new family home!

7/29/24

Patti Nelson: Praise - Tom's procedure this morning lasted 2 hrs but it went very well. I will be able to pick him up at 1pm if he continues to do well. Thank you for all the prayers.

7/28/24

Theresa Hilliard: My cousin Greg has stage 4 pancreatic cancer. Prayers for him and praise for his family reconciliation as he walks through this

7/21/24

Heather Bonomi: My husband has been in FL for work for the last 2.5 months and we (family of 5) just found out he will be headed to KC and back to FL. Please help me. Pray for the courage and strength to do my part in our family.

Margaret Burke: My prayers will be with Sports Jam this week. God bless all that is done for HIS glory!!!

Cindy Larson: This week is the birthday of 3 of our precious ones in SD, and I am struggling with not being welcome to celebrate with them. I know there is nothing and no one more precious to me than Jesus, but I still have my moments of pain....

Julie Hemenway: I have covid 4 the 2nd time around. Pray that I get over it quickly.

Patti Nelson: Tom will be having his ablation procedure on Monday July 29. He'll be in St Pete's all day. The heat has really been hard on him...this procedure will give him peace of mind. Also Tammy McDaniel who worked at Happy Day passed away from cancer. Her service is Aug 11 at Bethel in Chehalis.

7/20/24

Robert Fisher: I have put down nicotine now for 35 days, and I am in a season that feels like I am being pulled in every way.

7/17/24

Pam Daruud: Pray for friend Sadi W. Lost her mom and grandma earlier this year and has felt alienated from her remaining family. Is feeling lost and alone. Pray for direction for her life and for support of her community. UPDATE 7/19: Sadi now needs to get funds to keep her home (she lives in Lacey) and is looking for jobs to compensate.

7/16/24

Shirley Gallanger: Coworker (Riley and wife Hailey) navigating pregnancy and she was in an accident (car) and broke her leg. Pray for healing and for the doctors attending.

7/14/24

Shari Godwin: I'm being called to share my testimony and pray for courage and clarity from the Lord As to what this looks like...I pray his will not mine done. Amen

Kaleb Baldwin: I would pray for patience for God's will in my life.

Dawn Okrasinski Prayer for my sister Sassy that she will receive correct medical tx when she comes back home to the states. That God will heal her completely - amen

Terri Burgeson: Pray for peace and love in our country and praise God for His love and mercy.

Nancy Carlson: I am leaving for Idaho this week and will visit family and celebrate my 80th birthday. I would like to pray for safe travel and good fellowship.

Julie Hemenway: Prayer for physical strength tired physically after a busy week, also quick recovery for Nathanael from oral surgery had five teeth removed. Trisha has strep she is ill right now.

Theresa Hilliard: Pray that I can walk in righteousness and bring God's love even when I don't want to be doing something. I confess sometimes I am cranky

6/30/24

Sonjia Warren: Upcoming exploratory surgery for Makinley on the 11th. Having steady hands, discovery of what's bringing her pain, and quick recovery.

6/24/24

Jean Kester: My son Justin has been out of work for over a year. Had neck surgery and was released to drive and PT but nothing else. His employer stopped paying him without warning and LNI is paying him very little. He has bill collectors starting to call and he cannot work yet. His blessing is that his landlord is working with him. Please pray he can pay his bills and does not have any utilities shut off.

6/19/24

Michelle Buckingham: Please pray for my Dad as he fights colon cancer and my nephew as he fights brain cancer. Both found out they have cancer within the last few months. Thank you!

Theresa Hilliard: Praise God for all of the good, good father's in our family and in our church family. Prayers for Bill's kidney disease, that God would guide the treatment team and our decisions walking forward .

Linda Thompson: Thank you for everyone's prayers. They have been felt. I was blessed with over 44 years of us loving each other. Larry will be missed. There has been reconciliation with our boys also.

Patti Nelson: Prayer for Tom. On father's day he went for a walk through Stan Hedwell park with Mike. His heart rate began to rise quickly. He was not stressed but did phone it in to his cardiologist who he finally sees on Thurs June 20th. He would like prayer for answers as to why this is happening....

Pam Daarud: Going home on Monday to recover from surgery. She is happy to see her cats.

Brittany Stadden: Please pray for me as I am struggling with depression and anxiety. Also pray for my family to get a new house. I am also trying to get a part time job.

6/12/24

Charlie Mitchell: Please pray for friend Jenny. She is at the University of Washington hospital with leukemia cancer and her mom is with her.

6/11/24

Rick Schnatterly: Please pray for my father-in-law, Dick, to have a smooth transition into assisted living. Moving day is Wed 11th. And, for Deanna to get enough done so she can get home soon.

6/9/24

Theresa Hilliard: Praise God for the clinicians working with Bill. Continued prayers for his health please.

6/6/24

Pam Daarud: Surgery went well and she is in rehab, in pain, but doing okay.

6/2/24

Bryan and Danette Jones: Praises that Amerika's blood pressure is under control with the help from God, doctors, and medication. Praying that God continues to keep her healthy. Prayers for our grandson who will turn 1 this month. Prayers for traveling mercies for extended family as we come together for celebration.

Julie Hemenway: For finances to fix Matt's car, it's about $2,000 I think. He gets upset with me when I ask prayer for him, he thinks it's trivial but I know only God can help. Thank you church family.

Theresa Hilliard: Prayers and praise for Ebony and her family for peace and safety. Pray for Bill and I as we are caring for the kids.

Connie Smejkal: Please pray for baby Felix and his parents. God provided a miracle when this baby was born at a healthy weight even though his mom received no prenatal care and used multiple drugs throughout the pregnancy. His parents are in rehab trying to do what is needed to get him out of foster care. Please pray for my "bonus son" Andrew. He is struggling with mental health. Please pray for Tonya who has battled cancer for several years and has now entered hospice care. She is one of the most caring, positive, kind people I know. Have a blessed week and thank you for joining me in prayer.

5/31/24

Linda Thompson: Husband Larry is at Centralia Hospital having a heart attack (1:40pm). Doctors are determining next steps. Please be in prayer, asking for God's intervention. UPDATE 2:35pm: Larry has passed away. Please pray for Linda and family as they navigate this in the next few days and weeks.

Patti Nelson: One of our members of Lewis County Accessible Recreation was just diagnosed with Leukemia on top of their disability. Mom would like prayer for the child and family.

5/28/24

Pam Daarud: Surgery is scheduled for Thursday, 5/30, at 10:30am for a full shoulder replacement. Pray all goes well and healing progresses as expected and pain is manageable.

5/26/24

Deanna Schnatterly: May the Lord bless my Dad, Dick Block, with peace, clarity and trust as he considers a move to assisted living. I need patience and grace in my interactions with my Dad, and God's continued hand in the logistics.

Theresa Hilliard: Praise for a safe trip home. Prayers for God's guidance for Sean and Jessica in the new life reality they find themselves in.

5/19/24

Nancy Carlson: I still am having difficulty swallowing and would like prayer for healing.

Patti Nelson: On Friday afternoon, Tom was home alone and our dogs got out. He panicked - his defibrillator shocked him (10 times); it's like being electrocuted. He spent Friday night at Centralia hospital. He is still very tired.

Sandy Potter: Virgil's surgery last Thursday was canceled due to low blood count. No new date scheduled.

5/14/24

Pam Daruud: found out today she has to have surgery. She is in much pain and needs appt for surgery scheduled asap to have shoulder replaced. UPDATE 5/16: Surgery is scheduled for May 30th.

5/13/24

Julie Hemenway: My great niece Amelia (Gloria Rose's Granddaughter) has been diagnosed with celiac disease, she is only about 4 I think, she is a picky eater. And she has lost weight in the last 6 months. She hasn't been eating much. She is also type 1 Diabetic. Pray that the Lord will intervene and she will recover quickly, will keep you updated as I get more info on her health situation. Thank you church family.

5/12/24

Arlyn: Jesus I love you I wish I could see you. I love you in my heart. Best Jesus ever.

Sandy Potter: Please pray for Virgil Potter. He has surgery for shoulder replacement on Thursday this week, May 16th. Also for our oldest son, Shane Potter, who has pancreas liver cancer. Thank you for your prayers.

Linda Thompson: For 2 weeks I have had severe chest pain. My heart and lungs have checked out ok but the Dr's do not know why I have the pain. It has been very painful and is limiting what I can do in many ways.

5/9/24

Twilly Moody: Callie, a new mom, and her baby Quinn (2lbs, 11oz) took a turn for the worst. They can't get Callie's blood pressure and swelling down and the baby is going in for surgery on his stomach. Please pray.

Pam Daruud: Pam asks for prayer as she deals with her feelings and processing the trauma in her best friend's life and navigating through this time of grief. UPDATE 5/10: Pam has fallen and broken her arm/shoulder. Pray for healing.

5/5/24

Kylee Kreidler: Reaching out for a prayer request for my mom Gina as she navigates the mourning and loss of her 2nd husband.

Makenna Klovdahl: Prayer for future decisions. My school has cut much of my major program and fired many of my professors. Looking at the future whether to stay at my current school or look at other options.

Danette Jones: Prayers for both Ashley and Stephen - our adult children who are both pursuing professional degrees. Bless their paths as they help each other and as their paths pull them in different directions. Prayers for my friend Susan Lefler - Id' like to see God work in her life and her family's.