

1. This MAP is NOT first come, first serve. Beginners are welcome, but you will not be accepted if you have no art / animation examples to offer (you're free to DM examples to me on Discord if you do not have them posted on YouTube). If I heart your comment, that means that I've seen your application, not that you've been accepted.
2. No using Gacha for your part, no tracing art that wasn't yours to begin with, and most importantly, no using AI for your part!
3. Make sure that your part has dimensions of 1920 x 1080 Pixels.
4. Make sure that your audio is cut properly! If your animation ends up too short / too long for the part you've been given, some of your animation may end up cut off. If you need help cutting audio, feel free to ask the host in the Discord server, or in DMs!
5. You must send a Google Drive link of your part once it is finished! This is simply because Discord butchers the quality of videos sent on it, and the parts actually put in the MAP need to be high quality.
6. No watermarks! This includes the FlipaClip watermark. I will be adding a watermark of each person's username myself to the MAP, so no need to worry about that, either.
7. Gore is allowed and encouraged. However, do not include other kinds of NSFW in your part.
8. You are limited to 3 parts per person. You're encouraged to take multiple parts that are next to each other, so you can essentially make one longer part, but the parts are short so that you don't have to commit to something too long if you don't want to. (You're also free to take 3 parts in completely random places, this is just a suggestion!)
9. You do not have to fully animate your part! PMVs are okay, same with tweening, though I encourage you to add a little camera movement if you're using still images. (That isn't mandatory, though, do whatever feels right for you / whatever you're capable of :D)
10. Seeing as this is an Anything MAP, you're allowed to animate... whatever you want—OCs, fandom... something else, if inspiration hits for something out-of-the-box? I'm not going to give this MAP a fandom blacklist. However, please avoid content that is intentionally controversial or offensive in nature. (ie. Media that says slurs uncritically, targets minorities for jokes uncritically, actively advocates for immoral actions, etc.). If I decide that the media you want to use takes things too far, I may ask you to change what you're animating (and kick you from the MAP if you refuse to do so), but I'll try not to be too picky—I want to give everything a fair chance.

11. The code word is whatever you're planning to animate (ie. OCs, a specific fandom, etc.). You are free to change this once you get a part, if you have a new idea or something!
12. The deadline for this MAP will be 3 months after all parts are filled. Until then, feel free to work at your own pace. I will be loose with this MAP's deadline—if, for any reason, you won't be able to finish your part by the due date (ie. You got sick, something serious happened in your life, school was busy, you simply forgot you had the part), you will be given a 1 or 2 week extension without question (depending on what works better for your situation). After that, more extensions can be provided as long as you have proof that you have made progress on the MAP part within the extension period.
13. WIP checks will happen once every other week, on Saturday, likely in the afternoon (EST). You can give a verbal update on your part, or send any progress you have made on the part. This can be a storyboard, full animation, or even just a version of your OC with the palette adjusted to fit the MAP. If I don't hear from you for 4 checks in a row, I will DM you for an update. If you don't reply for 1 WIP check after that, you will be removed from the MAP for the sake of making sure it is completed in a timely manner.
14. It goes without saying, but you can drop your part at any time. No worries about me finding a replacement—it's always nice to let the backups have a chance to get a part, and I'm sure any participants will be happy for the due date to be extended a little if it takes a while to find someone else, lmao
15. You must join the Discord server to participate. If you don't have Discord, you aren't allowed to join the MAP. If you don't join the server within 1 week of getting a part, you will be kicked from the MAP.
16. This MAP will also have a thumbnail contest! It will be opened a week after parts are given out. You must join the Discord to participate in the contest.
17. Seeing as this MAP uses Discord for communication, you must be 13+ to participate.

ART DIRECTION

Further information on the Art Direction, as well as graphics, will be provided on the Discord server,

- Colours must be muted (below 50% saturation). However, eyes and blood do not need to be muted, and can be left at whatever saturation you prefer. Other details may be allowed to be saturated, with permissions—just ask!
- Characters can be shaded in whatever style you would like, including shading with more saturated colours, but it is not mandatory.
- Clean lines are discouraged but allowed; sketchy or scratchy Lineart is preferred.

- Backgrounds shouldn't be coloured aside from any potential blood. Backgrounds are not mandatory, and you're free to put characters in empty voids or only draw minimal scene elements (ie. Only including a chair, a few trees, one wall, etc. In a scene).
- A 1920 x 1080 paper-textured image will be provided in the Discord server. This should be used for the background of your part (underneath the lines for any background details you may include).
