

Reflections from the Final Round Robin

At the closing round robin, the prompt for everyone in the circle was: What will you take from our weekend together? What impacted you? Etc. Following are some of the snippets that Trish was able to rapidly scribble down as people shared around the circle.

- Curtis: Found the right people
- Gina: Enjoyed meeting new people; loved the nature
- John: Loved the people and inspired by their authenticity, transparency, vulnerability; can see that one can work their way out of trauma through the material
- Laurie: Felt excitement as to what to take away; appreciated the connection created with Eric in regards to the book he directed her to in the book exchange
- Eric: Wished to thank everyone; felt that the experience helped him learn from others; felt that he came with joy and left with more joy
- Joe: Appreciated the opportunity to figure out if he could trust the readers and L/L Research; looked forward going home and growing “like a wildflower”; loved the spoon bending experience
- Louis: Felt gratitude for the connections made; appreciated the serenity of being able to share
- Gina: Appreciated that a container was created/held where one can fully relax, with total trust and full freedom, which is not normal in her everyday life; felt inspired by the enthusiasm of the newcomers; felt that she learned how to look at things/life with new eyes
- Sandra: Appreciated all of the attendees; felt that she would be taking away a desire to work more with the Law of One material
- Christine: Felt that she was leaving with a bigger open heart and bigger open mind; felt that she received answers to long-held questions; felt that she met a mentor; felt that she made some self-discoveries
- Greg: Reflected gratitude for the organizers of the event; felt that he discovered a new vision for his self due to being able to being relaxed; expressed that “we’re all jewels reflecting each other”; wondered if we must all know each other
- Peggy: Loved the Open Space format; felt grateful for her fellow attendees; felt that she was walking away with healing and leaving behind her pain; felt that she discovered hope
- Suzanna: Felt that she was leaving with an open heart; felt that she had the experience of meeting entities she has known in past lives; felt that she’s leaving with an open fifth chakra
- Maekisala: Expressed gratitude; felt sadness that she wasn’t able to lead her proposed session due to personal difficulties.
- Nannette: Expressed happiness; felt thankful for the experience
- Diana: Felt that her meditations were better; felt grateful for the experience of being “surrounded”; expressed gratitude for others acting as mirrors; felt that she got to explore her self; felt seen

- Paul: Felt that he came into the event as a sponge and left feeling very satiated; felt that he could see new “constellations” forming; appreciated the experience of meeting with familiar faces and new friends; appreciated the crossing of paths that wouldn’t normally intersect
- Jonathan: Felt that the event had the sense of a family reunion, but without all the fighting; felt that he gained 50 new family members; felt that he was able to “connect dots”; felt that he was walking away with steps for action in his life
- Kristen: Felt that she became aware of how unaware she was of her thoughts, specifically the thought of not being good enough; expressed gratitude for BJ’s circling offering
- Lauren: Felt that she was walking away with greater understanding of what acceptance is
- Joanna: Felt that she was walking away with a piece of every connection; expressed that she was thankful for and hopeful because of those connections
- Miles: Felt that he was taking home a piece of everyone; felt that he was able to get closer to being his authentic self while at the event
- Chris: Felt that it was refreshing and touching to be around seekers with intent to serve; felt that it was empowering that there was a shared mindset
- Kearston: Felt that she was becoming a better listener; felt that she was able to release some of the mind’s chatter; that she discovered a new degree of hunger for 4D; appreciated the Harmony Council offering
- Pete: Expressed that he never felt so safe; felt thankful for the healing and the openness; expressed that it was heartwarming to know that all were going to go out and spread love
- Stephanie: Felt that she was walking away with new connections; was grateful for crossing paths with other seekers
- Rayanna: Felt happy and clear; expressed that she was feeling a sense of luck to have been able to attend; expressed gratitude for those that donated to the scholarship fund; felt excitement for the opportunity to take the experience home
- Johnathan: Felt thankful for the experience to embrace his full self; appreciated the opportunity to be vulnerable and to contribute to the container which fostered such vulnerability; felt that he was able to remember his true self and the knowledge of his truth; felt invigorated
- Zachary: Expressed appreciation for the opportunity of kindred spirits gathering
- Daniel: Expressed gratitude for the opportunity to practice authenticity and open sharing of self
- Ten: Expressed that the container was a wonderful place to be held; felt that there is so much more to learn about authenticity; related the experience to the idea of multiverses; felt appreciation for the love and connection; expressed excitement for the possibility of seeing the “light expand”
- Daniel: Felt connected; expressed gratitude for the synchronicities and other beautiful circumstances witnessed/discovered at the event

- Austin: Felt that he was walking away with a full heart and inspiration; felt that all in attendance co-created a clarified environment of love
- Kent: Felt that he had become a “rock”; expressed gratitude for the opportunity to be around likeminded others; expressed gratitude for the experience of being fully accepted
- Red: Felt that the experience offers all the opportunity to see each other through “funhouse mirrors”; stated “We’re all so beautiful”
- Aaron: Felt that he was walking away with an unbent spoon; felt that he was taking with him gratitude for discovering the shared purpose of channeling 4D; felt that he was filled with light and fuel to continue in his mission
- BJ: Felt that the event showed how sacred gatherings can be vehicles for positive evolution
- Tiffani: Felt that she walking away with some potent self-reflections for growth; felt appreciation for the experience of facilitating such an event as her first with L/L Research; expressed gratitude for all attendees showing up as their full selves
- Gary: Realized that being around others in this way was like “spiritual caffeine,” and that he would miss everyone.
