Vol 2. Chapter 10 - To be released after 2.9 is publicized

We're currently going through the old chapters in Volume 1 and cleaning them up, so progress on Volume 2 may be slower. Thank you for your patience and stay tuned for better quality chapter releases of Volume 1!

Note: We will always label our own notes with TL or Editor tags, anything else in the chapters is translated content.

We're currently looking for committed editors and Shakespearean enthusiasts to help out! Translators are always welcome! Come to Re:Translation's IRC, give us a shoutout and leave your email if you're interested!

 Please note that we are still ALIVE despite the recent lack of updates, it's just that the real world has captured us recently and we're struggling in our various ways to break out of it... Our translators and editors are all facing exams / the evils of school. Contact us at retranslationsgroup@gmail.com alternatively! *****

~ Synopsis ~

One day, students in a certain high school were transferred to another world where they immediately got attacked by hostile monsters. Facing total annihilation, they were only saved by some of the students, whom discovered that they have gained cheat-like abilities.

“Cheat” was originally a word meaning to trick or deceive, but now it's used as a term in games to mean something not originally possible, or over-powered in the original system.

Just a week after most of the cheat ability users left to explore the new world, chaos broke out in the Colony where most of the students without abilities remained. The remaining cheat ability users staged a coup d'état and rampaged. Students then started indiscriminately attacking each other.

Takahiro Mashima, despairs in the human race as he barely escapes amidst the chaos into the forest dominated by dangerous monsters with his life, only to encounter a giant slime over 2 meters tall.
