Promotion:It was only a question an issue a question of time before Dometic joined in and released launched a 12v DC fridge fridge to compete with the choices decisions available accessible from Everchill, Furrion, and Norcold. It is marvelous wonderful awesome incredible excellent superb high quality remarkable astounding spectacular lovely magnificent astonishing vibrant mind-blowing amazing staggering shocking extraordinary out of the ordinary dazzling gorgeous remarkable incredible miraculous excellent that it took them so long as provided that it did to affix to hitch to affix the party. You could argue for sure evidently of course obviously that Dometic didn't are looking to like to wish to should hurry since they have got they've they have had compressor models like the just like the DMC2841 or the Coolmatic line for a very long time a very long time, but things are converting altering in the RV world. The fashioned common regularly occurring usual normal original long-established DMC models look fairly dated, and compromised a lot on inner inner inside indoors garage garage volume. They certainly actually weren't weren't organized arranged to compete with the newer chrome steel chrome steel stainless-steel models. Enter the new the fresh DMC4101.

Great refrig. Cools and freezes fast, only uses 60 watts on AC and 5 amps on 12v DC. Great for tenting camping out , and far and plenty lower power draw than my thermo electric electric powered powered cooler, and 5X faster cooling. Very quiet too, it has two motors: One 12V compressor motor and one 12V condenser fan. So quiet, even at night in the camper, it lets me sleep, no problem difficulty . Well insulated and all metal construction advancement constructing , very strong but weighs about 48lbs. Thermostat is virtual digital and is +/ 3deg of my calibrated thermometer. Unit cools to about 4deg below set point, then cycles off unit it rises to set point, then turns on prompts . Has 3 compressor power settings, MAX, Auto and Eco mode. 8 amps. Has low battery bring to an end cut off bring to a standstill .

Date created: 2010 12 23 Name: Anonymous Location: Walnut Creek, CA Model/Style: LSC21943ST Satisfaction Rating: Somewhat Unsatisfied 2 out of 5 Review: "LG LSC21943ST" I have owned this refrigerator fridge for 365 days three hundred and sixty five days one year year twelve months . I like that it's the it is the side by side design with the freezer on the left and the refrigerator fridge on the best one of the best . There is a big variety of a large number of loads of storage space garage space storage space or maybe or even some extra elements parts qualities points facets like cabinets cupboards that may which could move and slide. While it has some good facets parts characteristics points facets , it continually constantly frequently always consistently freezes the food in the refrigerator fridge . Even on the warmest atmosphere surroundings setting environment , some mornings I open the fridge fridge in finding find to locate the milk frozen solid. It doesn't does not happen day-to-day daily daily daily each day , but often enough to be a disturbance.
