

Privacy Policy

1. Introduction

At IronPather we prioritize your privacy. This Privacy Policy explains what information we gather when you use our application, how it is handled, and the steps we take to safeguard your privacy.

2. Information Collection

When users use our application with an internet connection, we automatically collect the following technical and usage data:

- Device information: Operating system (`os`), device model (`device_name`), device version (`device_version`), unique device identifier (`device_id`), region (`device_region`), language (`device_language`)
- Usage data: Launch timestamp (`launched_at`), network status (`network_status`), IP address (`ip_address`)
- App information: Package name (`package_name`), version code (`app_version_code`)
- Installation data: Install source (`channel_source`), referrer (`install_referrer`), referrer click time (`referrer_click_timestamp`), install begin time (`install_begin_timestamp`)

We do not collect names, emails, contacts, or other personally identifiable information from users.

3. How Information Is Used

We use the collected data for:

- Service optimization and performance monitoring
- Analyzing usage trends and feature adoption
- Troubleshooting technical issues
- Security protection and fraud prevention
- Measuring installation campaigns and marketing effectiveness

4. Information Sharing

We may share anonymized, aggregated data with:

- Analytics partners for statistical analysis
- Legal authorities when required by law or to protect our rights

We never sell user data. Third parties receive only non-identifiable information.

5. Data Security

We implement industry-standard measures including:

- Encryption of data in transit (TLS/SSL)
- Restricted access controls on servers
- Regular security audits
- Data anonymization where possible
- Retention periods limited to operational necessity
