"If you have found a quiet bench in a quiet park and sat down, be sure you had a very profitable day."
Mehmet Murat ildan

Since our first NCNA meeting, our members have consistently prioritized the goal of cultivating a walkable, accessible community and caring for the green spaces throughout our neighborhood. Inspired by these goals and Chattanooga's National Park City vision, we have begun our Green Spaces Initiative, an effort to revitalize some of the publicly owned green spaces and parks in our neighborhood that have gone untended and thus unused. As our first green space, our neighborhood association chose the Sylvan Park Bird Sanctuary, an historic city park that has existed on city plat maps for over 100 years. We have been working with Scott Martin and Blythe Bailey at the city's Parks and Outdoor Department and shared our vision for using this park to connect the neighborhood around Sylvan Park to the Forest Avenue corridor. The Parks Department has partnered with us by designing the plans for the improvements, hiring Wild Violet Permaculture to clear the understory and surveying the route for a new trail that we plan to install.

NCNA has committed to raising funds to add new sitting spots, signs and pet waste receptacles, a picnic table and several other features. We have begun our fundraising efforts within our neighborhood association, selling tshirts, hats and stickers and accepting donations.

We have reached the point where we want to expand these fundraising efforts by partnering with other community members – local businesses and individuals – to secure the funding to begin our next stage of park restoration this winter (the ideal time for clearing and building a trail). Would you consider donating to our future efforts? Your sponsorship of the Sylvan Park Bird Sanctuary will be recognized on plaques or signage in the park. Your donation is tax-deductible to the fullest extent allowed by law because the North Chattanooga Neighborhood Association is recognized as a 501c3.

By supporting our park revitalization, you will be helping us make our neighborhood and city healthier, greener and more connected, cultivating wilder places where nature and people's time in nature are elevated. Please let us know if you have any questions by reaching out to northchattanooganeighbors@gmail.com. You can also contact us there with your interest in sponsorship, or mail checks and completed forms to 1022 Normal Avenue, Chattanooga 37405.

Thanks for your partnership!
