Last updated October 2020ish

Note: Many of these links (particularly the guides at the end, and the businesses owned by cis people) will include language which misgenders your body parts.

Eventually I will update this to include the appropriate warnings and further info so that you can easily index what you're looking for.
(However I am one spoonie so it may be some time.)

Sections to be added eventually: BIPOC owned, price range, charitable work, links to Yelp, return policy, kids line, student discount, sex worker discount, swimwear avail

Note: Boxes that are blacked out indicate that there is insufficient information, or else there may be some indication that terms “trans” and “queer” don’t necessarily translate to mean the same things as they do in colonizing cultures, so I didn’t want to presume. This is mainly the case with both T-Kingdom and Lesloveboat. The other ones are more insufficient information.
