Q	Q	Q	Q	Qs
What is a green stance on how to balance the federal budget? (typical of the Green party)	What is a blue stance on how to balance the federal budget? (typical of the Democratic party)	What is a red stance on how to balance the federal budget? (typical of the Republican party)	What is a yellow stance on how to balance the federal budget? (typical of the Libertarian party)	about money policy ● Which presidential administrations have ever balanced their budget? ● Which state governments have balanced their budgets? ● Should the U.S. allow a line-item veto to end pork-barrel spending?
A	A	A	A
balanced budget ● 50% cut in military spending = support defense only and end weapons development ● end corporate welfare = stop subsidizing corporations	balanced budget ● increase tax on wealthy & corporations (progressive tax)	balanced budget ● limit government-run social programs and reduce inefficiencies	balanced budget ● minimize all government spending to reduce the national debt and burden on tax payers	