

TW: Mentions of rape.

Welcome to the document where I explain something that has been brought to light as of recently, rape fetish accusations, my name is kino / marley, if you didn't know that. I want to keep this as clear and understandable as possible and hopefully clear up some information surrounding me, move over to the second TAB for explanation.

NOTE: Please do not go ahead and start doxxing my face, this has been happening for 2 days now and I think that doxxing will not help out the situation at all, and will only just put you in a bad place of reputation, please do not worsen the situation by doing unrelated actions, thank you.

I've had sexual experiences with an ex-partner with mine who was into rape gradually, when I was with them they would you try to justify it and say liking rape is okay as long as you keep it private, they would keep egging this on before I broke up with them and cut ties permanently, After a short period of time I would then go along and meet someone who would become my friend, we would start acting sexual and then I brought up I had a rape fetish because of my past experience with my partner and thought it was just okay to just bring that up, let alone say I wanted to be raped by them, I really don't want to be treated like that at all. Even though I was 14 at the time and should've known better, I let my guard down when I was with my ex, however that doesn't justify me repeating the disgusting fetish I was pushed into onto a different person me being groomed doesn't excuse what I've said and done however, it was a main influence on me which I could've ignored I want it to be clear that I no longer have this rape fetish, although I don't have the rape fetish anymore, I will be linking the screenshots inside the SubTab to show evidence that I indeed did say I wanted to be raped, it is only right to do so. I send my deepest apologies to the person I acted on during that time in my life, it was never right of me to go ahead and say those things to you, let alone say those things in general. Rape is a disgusting act and I wouldn't want to wish it upon even my worst enemy. To any victims of rape, I hope you recover swiftly and quickly, my word.

I will conclude my explanation on my "Desires To Be Raped" here, as I've mentioned before all the screenshots related to this will be linked in the SubTab for all to see. I'm sorry for what I've said.

This is the closure of this response, I really hope I was able to make some things more clear. There is some other things I didn't mention such as how I was groomed at the age of 11 which lead up to my hypersexuality and fetishes being a thing, and how my mental health makes me act, this is because I feel that focusing more directly on the topic is a better action to commit to then just going offtopic, continuing on from what I said at the start, I really do hope I've been able to make things a bit more clear, but not just to get me out of the situation, but to make it known I want to take accountability for such disgusting, filthy acts. I also would like to bring up something I said in the Introduction, please don't go around facedoxxing me all over the place, as it's becoming apparent it has been going on for 2 days now, not only is the photo embarrassing, it's just not going to contribute or make you seem like a better person in the long shot, that is the least I ask, thank you for reading this response of mine and I really do hope to make a change in peoples view, I don't want to hurt people, nor do I ever want to make them feel uncomfortable, I acted in a way i shouldn't have acted at the time, I am sorry. I hope as 2027 comes along I'm able to better myself mentally, and how I act with people. Goodbye.
