

Suzanne Giesemann - The Foundations of Evidential Mediumship 2023

What You'll Discover in These 7 Weeks

In this 7-week transformational intensive, Suzanne will guide you through the fundamental skills and competencies you'll need to bring love and healing to grief and amplify the joy of our true life after life reality using a practical, evidence-based approach to mediumship.

Module 1: Accepting the Sacred Responsibility of Your Innate Mediumship Skills for Soul Growth & Empowerment (January 4)

Although it may not always feel like it, you already have everything you need within you to connect with higher beings.

You'll call upon those aspects of yourself and chart a course toward evidence-based mediumship through what Suzanne calls "the sea of consciousness."

This begins by accepting the sacred responsibility of being the physical voice for those who no longer have one.

As you gain a greater understanding of the spiritual and metaphysical aspects of mediumship and the scientific foundations that make connecting with higher consciousness possible, you'll be empowered by the reality that life is eternal and love never dies — and you'll be better equipped to share your gifts as a medium with others.

This week, you'll explore:

- The nature of the spirit world and where it is
- Why evidential mediumship is the gold standard in spirit communication

- Why mediumship matters to those here — and to those in the spirit world
- How to maintain the highest ethics in this work and why this matters
- How mediumship helps your own soul's growth
- How guides help you with mediumship
- The SIP of the Divine guided meditation

Module 2: Become a Clear Vessel for Clear Communication With the Beyond for Energy Balance & Accuracy (January 11)

Every sailor knows the importance of keeping the hull of a boat clear of obstructions for optimum performance. The same goes for a medium. A clear mind and energetic field are a necessity.

You'll create the most coherent environment within and around your energetic field to optimize your ability to sense — and be the interpreter — for those with messages to be delivered.

Your dedication to the practices introduced in this module will determine whether you have smooth sailing or rough seas.

This week, you'll:

- Gain a clear understanding of the nonphysical dimension and how to access it
- Learn how to train your mind to focus and attune to higher consciousness
- Understand the light within you that serves as your innate protection
- Be guided through a simple yet effective method for clearing and balancing your chakras
- Learn profound truths from prisoners that apply to mediumship

Module 3: Develop a System to Connect With the Spirit World for Confident & Reliable Communication (January 18)

Yes, connecting with spirits is as easy as flipping a switch, but just how do you do that? Good sailors don't wander the seas aimlessly... they navigate according to accepted rules so that all may safely arrive at their destinations.

You'll explore why having systems in place when you practice mediumship makes it easier on you and those across the veil to navigate your encounters with greater ease.

The spirit world wants you to be successful and will cooperate with you when you develop a set of practices that you'll use together every time.

This week, you'll discover:

- How to rev your engines and build your soul power
- The different types of mediumship
- Reliable systems that build your confidence in connecting
- A guided 7-step method for connecting with higher consciousness (BLESSME Method)
- The elements of a private mediumship session

Module 4: Dive for Treasures — the Essence of the Messages From Those Beyond the Veil — to Find Gold in the Sea of Consciousness (January 25)

Suzanne teaches that everything you want to know as you navigate a mediumship reading exists in the sea of consciousness.

You'll learn how to discover the essence of someone who is across the veil and accurately deliver their important messages... and you'll open to the vast possibilities of how and what those in spirit can communicate through you.

The information you glean can be general or very specific. It's the highly evidential, "no other explanation" gold nuggets that make for the most healing sessions.

The types of evidence you can receive go far beyond what most people imagine are possible — you're limited only by your assumptions and expectations.

This week, you'll:

- Gain a deeper understanding of the vital difference between evidence and messages
- Hear a recording of a historic reading that's filled with examples of the types of evidence you can obtain
- Understand how to overcome your physiological and mental filters
- Come up with a reliable and replicable list of possible evidence that you want those in spirit to give you each time you connect
- Make a pact with your guides to put what you've developed into practice
- Use what you've learned to continue practicing readings with confidence

Module 5: Guide & Manage Those Who Show Up in Readings for Optimal Resonance & Communication (February 1)

You are an energetic being... and energy flows in cycles like the tides. There are ever-changing dynamics at play in a good connection during a mediumistic session as well.

You may not be able to predict how a reading will go, but you can learn to manage the variables for smoother sailing.

The goal is to prepare for success, eliminating the need for “doing” or “trying” and allowing you to relax and simply be... the perfect vessel for the task.

This week, you’ll learn:

- How to lovingly guide and manage the different players for the greatest resonance
- Why spirits show up in different ways — and how to deal with these differences
- Tips and techniques for going with the flow in a session
- Why it’s critical to sense the personality and capture the essence of those in spirit
- A guided visualization using the “BASIC” process to connect

Module 6: Align With Your True Nature to Fine-Tune Your Radar & Bring Your Best Qualities to Mediumship Readings (February 8)

Every being, whether in physical form or not, is the center of their unique energetic field. Your viewpoint is like the center of a radar screen with multiple contacts appearing around you.

The more you align with your true nature as a soul, the greater the reception of the other contacts.

This week, you'll learn how to determine who is truly captaining your ship: the ego or the soul. To be a successful medium, you want to bring your highest qualities to this healing work.

With understanding and best-practices you can fine-tune your radar to be a highly sensitive and accurate instrument for good.

This week, you'll:

- Recognize and compare the attributes of the soul versus the ego
- Apply "The Cycle of Trust" to overcome self-doubts that may arise when connecting with the spirit world
- Learn positive ways of dealing with "no" in a reading
- Know when to call off a reading
- Practice clearing and recharging your energy field after a reading

Module 7: Advance Your Practice by Uniting Loved Ones on Both Sides of the Veil to Serve Spirit With Confidence & Joy (February 15)

Connecting with the spirit world brings wonder and awe into your life on a daily basis. The journey isn't always smooth sailing, but it's true: "calm seas do not make skillful sailors."

Now that you've learned the basics, you're ready to take the helm and earn your sea legs. With plenty of time spent in the sea of consciousness, there's no limit to how far you can voyage.

You'll also explore methods of using your soul senses beyond mediumship that will augment your work.

Once you start uniting loved ones on both sides of the veil on a regular basis, you'll want to employ optimum practices between back-to-back sessions and when the readings are over.

All of these tools will benefit your own soul's growth as you move forward with confidence and joy in serving Spirit.

During the final class, you'll:

- Explore and practice the skill of remote viewing to augment your intuitive abilities
- Deal positively and proactively with assumptions and expectations
- Review best practices in mediumship to ensure the highest standards
- Learn the optimal methods for self-care in between and after readings
- Discuss "The Spiral of Improvement" that supports the onward-and-upward trajectory of your growth as a medium
