

About your course

Hi mary,

Your message about trying to help struggling massage therapists with courses is brilliant!
For the reason that most practitioners will spend lots of money to learn their skill, just to quit because they were not properly taught how to run their business.

Out of curiosity, are you using any strategies to monetize your target audience?

(possible omit of words) "For the reason that"

(Main concerns) It may seem like I'm lecturing where I explain WHY I think what she does is brilliant.
