

Privacy Policy for Your Lucky Days App

Last updated: 2024-11-15

Information We Collect:

To provide a personalised experience in our app, Your Lucky Days may collect certain personally identifiable information. The information we collect may include but is not limited to:

- Name
- Phone Number
- Google Email ID
- Date of Birth
- Time of Birth
- Place of Birth

The information you provide will be retained and used as outlined in this privacy policy to offer predictions and display relevant details.

How We Use Your Information:

We use the collected information primarily to provide and enhance our service. Specifically, the information is used for:

- Generating personalised predictions based on your date, time, and place of birth
- Personalising the calendar by showing which days are lucky, moderate, or unlucky for you

We may also use your information to improve our app's functionality and user experience, as well as analyse how the service is being used.

Third-Party Services:

We may engage third-party service providers to assist in delivering the service, such as hosting, analysing usage data, or supporting app functionality. These third parties have access to your personal information only to the extent necessary to perform these tasks and are obligated not to disclose or use it for any other purpose.

Log Data and Cookies:

Whenever you use our app, in the event of an error, we collect data and information (Log Data). Log Data may include details such as:

- Device IP address
- Device name
- Operating system version
- Configuration of the app when using the service
- Time and date of your use
- Other statistical data

Although our app does not use cookies explicitly, third-party services integrated into the app may use cookies to collect data to enhance service performance.

Links to Other Sites:

The app may contain links to external websites. If you click on a third-party link, you will be directed to that site. These external sites are not controlled by us. Therefore, we strongly recommend reviewing the privacy policy of these third-party websites. We have no responsibility for their content, privacy policies, or practices.

Children's Privacy:

We do not knowingly collect personal information from children. We encourage parents and guardians to monitor their children's internet usage and to ensure that children do not provide personal information without their consent. If you believe that we have inadvertently collected such information, please contact us so we can take the necessary actions.

Service Providers:

We may employ third-party companies and individuals to:

- Facilitate our Service
- Provide the Service on our behalf
- Perform Service-related services
- Assist us in analysing how our Service is used

These third parties will only have access to your personal information to the extent necessary to perform these tasks on our behalf.

Security:

We take reasonable steps to protect your personal information from unauthorised access, use, or disclosure. However, no method of transmission over the internet or method of electronic storage is completely secure, and we cannot guarantee the absolute security of your information.

Privacy Policy in Play Console:

The Privacy Policy is updated in the Play Console to disclose the collection of personal information (such as date of birth, time of birth, and place of birth) and its usage in relation to generating predictions.

Privacy Policy in the App:

The app uses your personal information to generate predictions about your lucky days based on your birth data (date, time, and place of birth). More details about the collection and use of this information can be found in the app's privacy policy, which is accessible from within the app.

Changes to This Privacy Policy:

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. We recommend reviewing this page periodically to stay informed about any changes. We will notify users of significant updates by posting the new privacy policy on this page. Changes will be effective as of the date mentioned at the top of this page.
