

In this season of his life, Sam Chand does one thing—Leadership.

His singular vision for his life is to Help Others Succeed.

Sam is a former Pastor, college President, Chancellor, and President Emeritus of Beulah Heights University. In 1973 “student” Sam Chand was serving Beulah Heights Bible College as janitor, cook and dishwasher then returned in 1989 to serve as “President” of the same college! Under his leadership it became the country’s largest predominantly African-American Christian College.

Sam develops leaders through:

- Leadership Consultations
- Transition Planning
- Sam Chand Leadership Institute
- Leadership Resources—Books, digital media, AVAIL Journal
- Leadership Speaking
- Dream Releaser Coaching
- Dream Releaser Enterprises

He serves Pastors, ministries, governmental and social organizations, and businesses as a Leadership Architect and Change Strategist. Sam speaks regularly at leadership conferences, churches, corporations, seminars and other leadership development avenues.

Sam Chand...

- Has written 25 books on leadership, translated into 5 languages
- Consults with large churches and businesses on leadership and capacity enhancing issues
- Named in the top-30 global Leadership Gurus list
- Founder & President of Dream Releaser Coaching and Dream Releaser Enterprises
- Conducts worldwide Leadership Conferences
- Has served on many boards such as EQUIP for John C. Maxwell

Leaders are using Sam Chand’s books and study guides worldwide in leadership development.

His educational background includes honorary Doctor of Humane Letters from Beulah Heights University, honorary Doctor of Divinity from Heritage Bible College, a Master of Arts in Biblical Counseling from Grace Theological Seminary, and a Bachelor of Arts in Biblical Education from Beulah Heights University.

Sam Chand shares his life and love with his wife Brenda, two daughters Rachel & Deborah, son-in-law Zack and granddaughters Adeline and Rose.

Being raised in a Pastor’s home in India has uniquely equipped Sam Chand to share his passion—that of mentoring, developing and inspiring leaders to break all limits—in ministry and the marketplace.
