

Task Force Perpetual Motion

Community Rules

Mil-Sim Rules

- 1) DCS World is an entertainment product, and the Task Force Perpetual Motion's Discord is intended for a general audience centered around DCS World.
- 2) It is strictly prohibited to post material (including status, profile picture, and profile) pertaining to inappropriate or discriminator behavior including but not limited to profanity and national, ethnic, racial, religious, or sexual discrimination, and hate speech.
- 3) All Task Force Perpetual Motion Discord members must treat each other with respect and tolerance at all times.
- 4) Administrative actions against members in Task Force Perpetual Motion are not subject to public discussion. If you feel an action against you was unjust or otherwise inappropriate please use the appropriate means to appeal the action to staff members.
- 5) Posts that undermine the actions of others, such as messages that are redundant, disruptive, or deal with topics that have been otherwise removed will result in administrative action against the user.
- 6) No political, social, or cultural disputes in the Discord server.
- 7) Advertisement of any product or service without prior consent from staff is prohibited.
- 8) Multiple user accounts and proxy accounts are not allowed.
- 9) No form of Doxing is allowed in Task Force Perpetual Motion.
<https://www.merriam-webster.com/dictionary/dox>

- 10) Posting images, file links, and file sharing links of military documents that are controlled in nature from the Department of Defense (DOD) that otherwise breaks Operational Security (OPSEC) or violates the documents release authority is strictly prohibited.
- 11) You must be 15 years or older to be in Task Force Perpetual Motion.
- 12) All members regardless of age must maintain a level of maturity that aligns with our community rules found in this document. Maturity level is assessed by staff members.
- 13) Exercise good ethical judgment when posting.
- 14) Sharing of real life events such as violence, killing, sexual content, and anything else that shows national, ethnic, racial, and religious discrimination is prohibited.
- 15) As a community centered around Eagle Dynamics Digital Combat Simulator World (DCS) we adhere to their Terms of Service (TOS) and End User License Agreements (EULA), and we expect our members to do the same.
<https://www.digitalcombatsimulator.com/en/support/license/>
https://www.digitalcombatsimulator.com/it/legal/terms_of_service.php
- 16) As a community that utilizes Discord as its main communication platform we adhere to their TOS and Community Guidelines.
<https://discord.com/terms>
<https://discord.com/guidelines>