

Mario, You Can Boost The Athletic Bodybuilding Course!

Hello Mario!

I was on youtube and came across your page; man, something clicked.

Your videos about Athletic Bodybuilding are very informative first of all and to help people achieve the aesthetic look that everyone wants is pretty amazing.

The way you market your product is very useful since It steers away from traditional bodybuilding, but it could be more talked about

The Athletic Bodybuilding School is very unique since it promotes Athletic Bodybuilding with the help of other "fitness" creators getting mad that you've debunked traditional bodybuilding.

I know an effective tool that we can use immediately to get tons of more customers. It's literally bound to work and we'll get loads of more traffic through the website.

So, here's the deal, I I think you are a cool guy and you are truly reforming bodybuilding and the fitness industry, I have ideas, I've seen this dominate in other industries, I'd think it would be very helpful and I want to bring it to your business because I believe it'd make a positive impact in the industry. I wrote a little sample that you can check out, to see if you like it.

Best Regards, John
