

Nomination form of the “UWC 30 under 30” initiative

This initiative is aimed to discover young brilliant and gifted Ukrainians who are actively bringing change to their communities, support Ukraine and could potentially be the future of leadership.

*The names of 30 winners will be announced during the UWC summit 2025.
The initiative is a part of the S. Romaniw Youth Leadership Foundation project.*

To participate in the “30 under 30” initiative, members of the global Ukrainian community should meet the following criteria:

- be a person of Ukrainian origin and/or a citizen of Ukraine or another country who is currently residing outside of Ukraine (for at least 2 years);
- be under the age of 30 as of December 2025 (those who won't reach the age of 30 by December 30th, 2025),
- be actively involved in Ukrainian community life and aimed at creating a positive image of Ukraine, Ukrainian community or Ukrainian people/nation abroad.

Persons who are currently residing in Ukraine are not eligible to be candidates.

Candidates can be nominated by the Ukrainian public organizations, included in the Ukrainian World Congress's network, and other Ukrainian public organizations/ institutions operating outside of Ukraine by completing this form and sending it by December 30, 2025 to the following e-mail address 30under30@ukrainianworldcongress.org.

Ukrainian public organizations/ institutions, which are not included in the UWC network, should receive the letter of support from the UWC Regional Vice-President (responsible for their region) and submit it along with this form.

The final list of 30 individuals will be created by the Expert Committee and the UWC President as the Chair of the Expert Committee. Those who are ambitious, creative, skilled at team work and leadership, doers and volunteers in the Ukrainian community and have accomplishments in the country of residence will be considered for the list of winners of the “30 under 30” initiative.
