

a time very long ago a time before the era of Discord when Skype still ruled the ModelUSGov back channels there was a group of 5 great friends

<https://i.imgur.com/PH3qKbE.jpg>

Their names were Didicet, AJ, Sevag, Andrew, and Ben

You know me as AJ, obviously, and you know who Didicet and Sevag are too

Andrew used to go by the username ehbrums1 and was a leader in the OLD Green-Left Party, the original one

His username now is WhaleshipEssex

Ben was ben1204, who was the Chairman of the Democrats for some time, and ran for President but lost to Turk

These five young lads would stay up into the wee hours of the night talking and joking around and memeing on Skype so much so that they became known as "The Late Night Meme Squad" now as time went on these five would create their own Skype server, and the membership of this Skype server would grow and soon it became apparent that the people in this chat were all people of relative power in ModelUSGov in time, "The Late Night Meme Squad" became just "The Meme Squad" which is a dumb as shit name but it stuck and the Meme Squad decided to use their powers, but not for good, rather for evil

They concocted conspiracies and plans, designed to rule over ModelUSGov from behind the scenes

Four of the members, AJ, MoralLesson, NateLooney, and TurkandJD, went forth and orchestrated the first ever Sunrise Coalition in an attempt to get Turk, one of our own, elected President

And it worked over time the membership grew, bit by bit a new lad was added by the name of Eduardo

They were quite the happy family!

also I promise these pictures are old as hell I'm not making these just for this story they're buried deep in my imgur

However, taking over ModelUSGov politically only was not enough

This group of villains needed to control the moderation as well

And so, when the time came for DidNotKnowThatLolz to retire, the group hatched another plan

Led by Riley and Brandon, the Squad led the #NayToMDK movement, and led MDK to be harassed so thoroughly that he quit before he could even fail a VoC then the squad was in business, and had one of their own promoted to Head Mod, Nate, but Nate would soon be uncovered to be Diddlin'

And so MoralLesson became the Head Moderator, and he filled the two Triumvirate vacancies with, you guessed it, members of the squad

Ed and Didicet

While this is all going on, the squad was becoming more and more difficult to control, and their schemes were growing increasingly nefarious

Sevag, Riley, and Brandon in particular, as they used MoralLesson's doxxing skills to doxx people that they considered to be nuisances, and send those people doctored photos and death threats anonymously

And the rest of the Squad, including, I am very ashamed to say, myself, merely stood back, watched, and said nothing

Even when WaywardWit had his name, address, the name of his wife, and even more info than that uncovered and sent to him anonymously as a threat, and the poor man came to the mods pleading for help

Ed, Didicet, and I all said we had no idea, and that we would do the best we could to find the person responsible

All lies

Now at some point else along the timeline, another member joined the Squad his name? Big Boss

Once Eduardo took over the position of Head Mod, and appointed me to his old seat, there was no stopping the evil Squad

Riley, Sevag, Boss, Kerbogha, Blake and others all practiced their politics inside of the Socialist Party to defeat Idris and install Boss into the Presidency

Nobody knew that it was all being orchestrated with the mods as well

Now, none of the vote counts were ever changed or rigged, at least not to my knowledge

But the moderators used their powers improperly and abused them, punishing harshly those they disliked, and looking the other way for their friends

The Squad's evil by the end knew no bounds: they even doxxed Evan C. and Evan C.'s dad to scare that poor kid away from ModelUSGov

However, as their actions grew more destestable, the Squad itself began to fracture

Eventually, AJ and Brandon fought so many times, that a new secret chat was established in May/June of 2017 in secret

AJ, Turk, Oughton, and others were never invited to the new chat

They were kept out of the loop as the Squad's most corrupted members took over and became ever more dark and twisted

From my perspective, the Squad slowly died

Cincy retired, and the Squad finally filled the entire Trumvirate by placing Blake in his place

There were no longer any checks to their power or abilities

But the chat went inactive

Members like Stu, James, Avdo, Ale

they all disappeared but in reality, they were retreating to the second chat, and leaving some of us behind now I found out about this second chat a while back and it became my mission to somehow gain entrance to it and see if I could find anything of note

Today, I managed to obtain the password to one of Sevag and Riley's Discord alts, an account by the name of Yahutha using Sevag and Riley's discord alt, I was able to spy on their chat and take screens of as much as I could find before they realized that their alt was compromised and kicked me from the chat

And so, the story ends here. The Squad was built for a very long time on the principle of mutually assured destruction. If one person were to step out of line, they would have to destroy themselves in order to destroy the others

But now I've realized that destroying myself in order to bring them down is the right thing to do. Because each and every one of them is a cheater, a liar, and a scoundrel. Some of them are doxxers, death threat senders, and harassers. But we all knew about everything. None of us were ignorant. And we all did nothing here is everything that I was able to get from their second chat today

Do with it what you will they also save pictures of everyone they can get their hands on. That's what some of those are

Sevag made this and sent it to Judah oh also, Riley, Sevag, and Oblomov were behind all of the spam bots

We knew about those too

Mr. coke can dick guy, you know the one unfortunately that's all I have, because when they realized that I was gathering evidence, they nuked the original server so all I have is what I could get from their server today

And I just want to take this moment to say that I deeply apologize to anyone that was hurt because of my actions or inactions, and that it will take a lot of time to repair a lot of the relationships I've damaged

But it was time to come clean

I guess that's all I've got

I wanted to do this in the main chat but they banned me preemptively

they were trying to silence me before I could get this out so thank you to him
