

affect - verb -> influence, change Music affects my mood.
effect - noun Music has an effect on my mood.

amount - quantity (used with uncountable nouns)

category = kind, type, form, genre, class chapter - part of the book (fictional, non-fictional, novel..) unit - part / section of a textbook (for study) completely - adverb = totally, absolutely concerned = worried = bothered

describe - verb
description - noun

draw - make a picture using pencils paint - make a picture using paints and brush enjoy - verb + able -> enjoyable - adjective do - verb doable - adjective exact - adjective = accurate, precise, correct favour = help Do me a favour. - Help me.

flavour - smell, taste

impact = influence, effect famous - popular, well-known for good reason notorious - well-known for bad reason occasionally = sometimes = from time to time solid colour / fabric (no pattern) poetry - genre of literature poet - a person who writes poetry poem - a piece of poetry

rarely = seldom -> adverb request = ask for something slight - adjective = little/ a little slightly - adverb - little It's slightly cold.

spare - adjective

free - spare time (free time) extra, additional - spare key, spare change, spare chair (is not being used by someone) terrible - adjective = awful, really bad, horrible trouble = problem make a trouble, trouble maker, get/be in trouble; trouble shooting (resolve a problem)