

WORK HARD GET REWARDED

Once there was lazy farmer called Mitch. He never liked to do anything... Oh but there was that one thing. It was driving around in his Ute. Mitch has a really nasty attitude that would really make your spine shiver.

Mitch owned a dairy farm with heaps of paddocks and big tractors and mountains to the north side. There was a deep creek running though the farm. He always liked to swim in it in the summer.

Mitch treats his workers like dirt and leaves all the work to them. Then he complains when they don't do the job right because he doesn't show them, how to do it right.

When the workers were milking cows the milking machine was making funny noises. So one of the works went and saw Mitch about it but Mitch did nothing about it, so the worker carried on any way.

About a month later the boys were milking cows and one of the pipes cracked and the pump started losing pressure. Steve the worker told Mitch but Mitch did nothing about it.

The next day the pipe blows and loses all the milk. Mitch workers get really grumpy and leave. Mitch has lost money and his workers.

Finally Mitch wakes up and does a lot about it. He gives his workers a pay rise and says sorry. Mitch does more around the farm to help.

Mitch buys himself some gumboots and the boys awarded him farmer of the year.

The moral of the story is... WORK HARD GET REWARDED.
