

Planting Seeds episode 035

October 12, 2026

So now we are live streaming an execution and raiding the home of a sitting member of Congress during the ramp up to the Midterm Elections Naturally it's the opposing party as "dear leader" has made no secret of his disdain for Ilhan Omar. She never had a chance with the likes of him, a woman, an immigrant and much smarter, as most Americans are. So how did this poor excuse for humanity get reelected? Beats the shit out of me, but I place the bulk of the blame at the dumbing down of society started by Reagan and trickle down economics. What does this have to do with this edition of Planting Seeds? To be honest, nothing at all. I just needed to get it off my chest, and I think every American with any sort of public profile needs to speak out. Please vote.
