Japanese NCEA Level 3

Course Description:
Level three Japanese will extend your ability to understand and communicate in Japanese beyond the comfort of familiar contexts. You will be challenged with a range of more complex tasks and "real life" language. You will be encouraged to question, compare and contrast, give advice and recommendations, express your personal point of view and evaluate the views of others on a variety of topics by stating your opinions/reactions to other opinions, and provide supporting evidence/examples.

This course covers level three NCEA Japanese and leads to entry to tertiary study, and travel or work opportunities in Japan. Throughout the year there will be an opportunity to undertake three internal and two external achievement standards. Students can gain up to 24 University Approved credits at NCEA level three.
