How to reach me :

- By phone
- By email
- By Google Meet
- Other formats (Facetime, etc) that have been mutually agreed upon by family and myself

How will I meet your child's needs? : Will meet student needs through virtual options (google meet, zoom etc), through activities sent home and through email. How students services are provided will be mutually agreed upon with each family based on their individual needs.

This will look different for each family based on your child's speech and language needs and what you want/need from me. I want to work WITH you so you feel supported during this distance learning time.

When does this start : On 3/30/2020
