

Challenge

Tweet as if you were one of the Early and Famous Sociologists.

Process

- Write at least one historic tweet (140 characters or less) from each of the Early and Famous Sociologists:
 - Auguste Comte @augustecomte
 - Herbert Spencer @herbertspencer
 - Karl Marx @karlmarx
 - Emile Durkheim @emiledurkheim
 - Max Weber @maxweber
- Witty responses are appreciated, BUT they must reflect a key idea.
- Create fake tweets with FakeTweetBuilder
 - How to use FakeTweetBuilder (view screencast)
 - When each tweet is finished:
 - “Create Twitter Thread”
 - Download (this will download a png. image to your computer)
 - Remember you will create five separate tweets (images)
- Create a Google Drawing with your Early and Famous Sociologists tweets
 - How to use Google Drawing (view screencast)
 - Login to your LCHS Google Account
 - “Create” a “Drawing”
 - Title = Period#_SocTweets_YourLastName(s)
Examples:
4_SocTweets_Brazeau
 - “Share” with your teacher
 - Change from “Private” to “Anyone with Link”
 - Allow Comments
 - “Insert” your tweets (images)
 - Add your own creativity!
 - Submit on the google form on CH 1 Sociology Tweets
 - Example Drawing (tweets are unfinished)

Evaluation: 15 points

- ☐ Expectations for the task
 - ☐ All 5 Sociologists are represented through tweets
 - ☐ Each tweet accurately represents the ideas or contributions of the

Sociologist

- ☐ Tweets represent important ideas or concepts of the individual
- ☐ Tweets are conversational-not report
 - ☐ Poor Example- Auguste Comte “creator of sociology”
 - ☐ Better Example- “Sociology I am your father!”
- ☐ Bonus if tweets are connected in conversation between sociologists.