

Asia Pacific Forum on Women, Law and Development
Empowering women to use law as an instrument of change and promoting women's human rights in the Asia Pacific region

NGO in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations

Case Study Submission on Feminist Strategic Litigation
July 2024

Case Study Submission Date
Name of Partner Organisation/ FLTP Alumni/ Individual Member
Country
Thematic Area
Name of Parties
Name of Court/Council
Case Registration Number

A. Background

Provide a brief summary of the case covering the following areas: name of the parties, description of the community/its members who were part of this case, brief overview of the facts, procedural history, grounds of the submission, judgements and/or directions received from the judge/ court. (500 Words Max)

--

Asia Pacific Forum on Women, Law and Development
Empowering women to use law as an instrument of change and promoting women's human rights in the Asia Pacific region

NGO in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations

B. Feminist Legal Strategies

Discuss the methods and approaches used for the litigation support: contents (discuss the law the litigation was based on), timeline of the case, tools used for the litigation support, research tools to gather information (i.e. fact finding missions, tribunals, trial observations), resources used and impacts. Please also mention the insights and perspectives which were gathered during the implementation of the Feminist Legal Strategies. (800 Words Max)

Asia Pacific Forum on Women, Law and Development
Empowering women to use law as an instrument of change and promoting women's human rights in the Asia Pacific region

NGO in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations

C. Advocacy Campaigns and Strategies

This narrative section should focus on the advocacy strategies (if any) that were taken to support the litigation. Please mention the advocacy campaigns, network building activities that were organised in support of the case. (500 Words Max)

D. Dialogues and Movement Building

Discuss how the dialogues with relevant actors/stakeholders (ministries, government offices, NGOs, CSOs and/or UN bodies) shifted or gained support (if any) helped the movement building and what were the key impacts? (500 Words Max)

Asia Pacific Forum on Women, Law and Development
Empowering women to use law as an instrument of change and promoting women's human rights in the Asia Pacific region

NGO in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations

E. Challenges, Limitations and Lessons Learned

This narrative section should focus on assessing the challenges, limitations, structural barriers and obstacles that were faced during the case. (300 Words Max)

Asia Pacific Forum on Women, Law and Development
Empowering women to use law as an instrument of change and promoting women's human rights in the Asia Pacific region

NGO in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations

F. Next Steps

Discuss about the next steps (If any) that would be taken for following up and assuring women's human rights and access to justice. (200 Words Max)

G. Annexes

Please attach the annexes for supporting the Case study.