

Party Planning Info

You have $500 to plan a 8th Grade Graduation Party for yourself.

1) Step One:

Figure out a guest list - 50 people maximum, no minimum
(Family? Friends? Both?)

2) Step Two:

Use the sheet to fill in and keep track of your budget information.

3) Rules:

- Need to spend at least $400 of the $500 Max
- If you already have a connection to food/decorations/etc., you can put $0.00 in Expenses

Examples:

- Having a cookout would require you to find:

Main Course:

Hot dog buns, hot dogs, ketchup, mustard

Sides/Snacks (probably want 2-3):

Chips

Baked beans

Coleslaw

Potato salad

Other deli salads

Drinks:

Soda

Bottled Water

Juice

Dessert:

Cookies

Cake

Brownies

Napkins, Silverware, Decorations, Tables and Chairs

- Catering Locally (If you cannot find prices online, look elsewhere)
 - We do NOT want 300+ kids calling stores

- You are not limited to this list; this is a starting point. Feel free to look at your favorite places online to see if they have information.

Buffalo Wild Wings

Subway

Figaro's

Little Caesar's Pizza

Renard's Catering Company

-Look under menu and click to what you want

Julie's Cafe Catering

Festival Foods

-click on catering menu for prices

Super Ron's

Sam's

-Cakes and other desserts

- Places to Go:

Xtreme Air

Commando Paintball

Bay Beach

The Gutter- Bowling