

Hey, it's me Luma! just wanted to let y'all know that this lore is for everyone, so try and edit it in any way you like. just please don't disagree with the entire fucking story. (this only applies to people in the discord, if you're viewing this via the website, you probably won't get anything here. If you're a fan of the 3ds and it's homebrew, join the NetPass discord which will be linked in the site.)

if you dunno what this lore is about, it's about NetPal and his species fighting Evil NetPal, MiiPal, and more.

XPN's famous for saying the line "We can make a new type of creature" as a joke. Some scientists decided to make that a reality.

Welcome to the NetPal Lore Central.

Use this for doc chat. Get in the chat bitches :troll:

Trolling in green with my ideas lmao, delete at will :netpaltroll: -That German Guy (his name is tim - luma)

The Pal List

- NetPal (Netpass, PCJava, WiiUEnjoyer, foxxa, and others (excluding Tim for SOME REASON) (Hey you're complaining but what about traplog!)
- Evil Netpal (Netpal, but evil. PCJava)
- Laptin (Netpal, but backwards and probably evil)
- Spotpal (Spotpass, MrNoobingtonTheIll/Danielle [maybe? I dont remember...])
- ZonePal (Nintendo Zone, theredlumas2)
- DownloadPal (Download Play, Space Dancer)
- MiiPal (Miiverse, Space Dancer)
- ARPal (AR Games, Space Dancer)
- ePal (Nintendo eShop, Space Dancer?)
- SoundPal (Nintendo 3DS Sound, Space Dancer probably)
- CamPal (Nintendo 3DS Camera, space dancer also probably)
- NotePal (Game Notes, Traplog)
- TwilightPal (DS mode/Twilight Menu pal)
- HealthPal (Health and Safety, XPN)
- StreetPal (StreetPass, Luma)
- Evil Spotpal (SpotPass, but evil. XPN)
- BrowserPal (Internet Browser, Luma)
- PictoPal (PictoChat, Rain)
- BSODPal (Windows BSOD, Rain)

Personalities/Traits

- NetPal (NetPal is of course, the original of the Pals and considered the leader for those not on Evil NetPal's side.) (How's a Homebrew the leader of Nintendo Pals) (they thought he was the coolest one enough said)
- Evil NetPal (Evil NetPal is like a cartoon villain. He always says he wants to take over NetPass, but fails at the most convenient of times. Also has a cool ban hammer)
- Laptin (Most likely evil.)
- SpotPal (Close friend to StreetPal, but tries to integrate with the new group meaning she's split between the both of them. Hangs out with the NetPal group but does small favors for StreetPal. She does feel like something's off about StreetPal. Foreshadowing alert hahahffojidgjiogfdjiogdtfjiorhtoihrteijorthjoihetjoi)
- ZonePal (Aggressive as heck. The antenna could be considered part of his brain, so hijacking it could let you do stuff to him, such as making him say stuff he doesn't want to say. Though, he can use it basically fire out radio-waves or whatever they are)
- DownloadPal (Rude to, or even making fun of Evil NetPal and MiiPal, but focused when in a serious situation. Top screen can be unscrewed and thrown like a boomerang. Was accused of shipping zonepal and spotpal even though he said it as a joke but also that doesn't really matter lmao.)
- ARPal (used to be hated by Space Dancer, but is getting a chance. Can scan AR cards to spawn different things, such as weapons. Has a tendency to AR-Card summon the paper mario TTYD "Stylish" message whenever he does something he thinks is cool)
- MiiPal (Hates the other pals and joined Evil NetPal's team, and tries his best to be as evil as he can. Was killed by DownloadPal, but managed to use a DNA copy from a lab computer to be revived in the TV.)
- ePal (Dead because eShop servers are dead)
- SoundPal (Constantly using way too many words to explain his point of view, mocked by Space Dancer for yapping) (Would make for a great outcast -> becoming evil as revenge)
- CamPal (Tries to be nice, but is always snapping pictures of people to capture the moment but annoys them. He also has a photographic memory.)

(ePal, SoundPal, and CamPal were found in Space Dancer's attic and we're stuck there since netpass released)

- NotePal (He has a super good memory. Using the pencil that is stabbing his head he can remember anything and everything. He can use the pencil in his head as a weapon, however the downside is that he loses all form of thinking as his pencil is his brain. Despite having good memory, he's shown to be stupid at times.)
- StreetPal (Antagonist. He was a prototype of the Pals and was eventually replaced by NetPal. Due to him being nothing but a test, he was thrown in a box somewhere. He has lots of hatred for NetPal due to him having all of the attention and the fact that he's nothing but a test subject for NetPal to eventually be created and wishes to take over his place.) (SpotPal can't rily have the same villain story since at most other services start sending SpotPass data, but the principle stays the same. NetPass like, completely changed how to get a streetpass)

- PiratePal (Antagonist. Created due to Evil NetPal and MiiPal cloning ePal's dead body. Loves crime.)
- TwilightPal (Neutral, Chill, 1# SD cart eater. Seems to have less capabilities than the rest of the pals due to being the DS mode.)
- HealthPal (Pretty laid back, Medic, Boring person to be around. Is gay)
- Evil SpotPal (like evil netpal but spotpal)
- BrowserPal (Insanely laid back. Navigator of the group, will use tech they have invented and the internet's resources to help the group. Close friend to ARPal, and has helped ARPal in the past with making new AR cards. Non-binary.)
- PictoPal (Likes PictoChat and most DS games, likes grey)
- BSODPal (BSOD your pc!)

Spinoff Pals

- SmokePal (PCJava)
- HomePal (HomePass) ?

Non-Pals

- Tetris battle guy (Luma)
- 2DSXL (Traplog)
- 2DS (Space Dancer)
- Tibby (Space Dancer)
- Barack Obama
- one more bot
- WinRAR
- 7-Zip
- Blorp

Non-Pal Personalities/Traits

(Non-Pals aren't fully included in the lore, they're more just jokes)

- Tetris battle guy (Obsessed with tetris battle and will attempt to mention it at any opportunity. ZonePal hates him for some reason.)
- 2DSXL (He thinks he's the best console and shares that with everyone but he ends up getting hated instead.)

- 2DS (Sad because everyone hates him, even though he is peak comfort)
- Tibby (Tibby from Rhythm Heaven Megamix.)
- Barack Obama (loves maid dress)
- one more bot (Used whenever I need to do a funny - Luma)
- WinRAR (WinRAR. Extracts files.)
- 7-Zip (7-Zip. Extracts files.)
- Blorp (New creature by XPN, doesn't do shit.)
- ??? (We know that Blorp killed this person, however we are yet to know the identification.)

Tales

Hey Traplog here, Feel free to make or edit Netpass tales as this lore is for everyone!
If you have no idea what the heck this lore even is. The bottom of the document has a good explanation of it.

Anyway, now Luma's here. Here's how tales work:

Tales take place across different character's POVs. SCIENTISTS TALE 1 takes place in the scientists who created the Pals's POV.

NETPAL TALE 1 would take place in NetPal's POV, and you get the rest.

Please write your name next to the tale number so we know who wrote it.

They each should connect into each other, and into the story in general.

SCIENTISTS TALE 1 (Written by Luma) - The Prototype

We've made a breakthrough. We managed to create an artificial lifeform from scratch. His name is StreetPal. StreetPal's data should come in handy when we create the non-prototype life forms. Due to what we named StreetPal, we'll refer to this new species as the Pals. StreetPal doesn't seem to speak English, which is to be expected. I'll probably attempt to teach the non-prototypes English later. While I did like StreetPal, our CEO is telling us to just trash him somewhere. I put him in a box, and later I'll drive it to that overstocked warehouse that we still have for some reason. secret

SCIENTISTS TALE 2 (Written by Luma) - Creating the Pals

A month has passed since we created StreetPal. The team that's working on the Pals was hard at work editing the data and building a program that we could create, edit and customize Pals with. It's almost like a character creator, to be honest. They named the program PluralKit, so I'll just refer to it as that.

I was on the team customizing the Pals. They created a blank, solid white Pal that we could use as a template to add their traits, recolor and design accessories for them (those accessories are basically attached to the Pal so I can't really call them accessories to be honest).

We basically gave them all superpowers, to be honest. Have you seen ARPal? He can literally create illusions out of thin air. And also HealthPal. He can heal other Pals, so that's useful, I guess. (Giving a new lifeform superpowers? Ob boy what could go wrong)

We created more and more Pals, until one we made stood out to us:

NetPal. He looked very similar to StreetPal, but with a gradient, and a leaf-like thing on his head. He honestly looked the greatest out of all of them, so we basically made him the Pal species mascot. I think the Pals themselves felt the same way; from what I could tell, they basically made him their leader. Anyway, now was basically putting them all in a box again and PluralKit-ing them so they could speak English. We required this to happen so that we could figure out what they're talking about, and if they're plotting something. And also general curiosity.

We've created all the Pals we've wanted to make so far, but I still have a question; What would happen if we put NetPal in a cloning machine?

STREETPAL TALE 1 (Written by Luma) - I'm Done With This

Why. Why am I the one that's abandoned? Do those dumbasses at that laboratory actually think that I don't have feelings? Just because I'm a prototype? I overheard them saying something about other Pals being created before this box I'm in got thrown in this stupid warehouse. Great, not only was I abandoned, I was REPLACED. I've got to get out of here and get back to that fucking (5$ in the swear jar) (I stole the swear jar, it's mine now - Luma)lab; hopefully I can fucking get revenge on not only them, but all those other damn Pals.

(Luma speaking. Can someone make this better for me? The tale's not that good. Keep the general "streetpal thinking about how he was replaced" type shit but yeah)

(Horribly late (04.2025) but enjoy)

It's funny. Those humans celebrate each other for being the first one to do something, to invent something, to show something that hasn't been done before. THEY take the credit and let their inventions ROT in the darkness until they're stuffed into a storage box so that they don't have to look at them. They're not even decent enough to ACKNOWLEDGE my existence! What did I do wrong? How is it MY fault THEY created me the way I am? How do I take the BLAME for THEIR MISTAKES?! What makes them think they can just THROW me out, TAKE my name and create some DISGUSTING, MUTANT SPINOFFS that makes the dopamine receptors in their stupid monkey brains kick off. Do they even know how it feels? DO they? CAN they even feel such emotions such as empathy? Maybe SOMEONE has to stuff them inside a CRAMPED, DARK box in the middle of an ABANDONED place so they realize what monsters they are.

I will get out of here.. and I will show them what happens when they try to REPLACE me. I'll show them I'm BETTER than ANY knockoff they can even THINK off. And once I'm done with these stupid other pals, I'll show them firsthand how I am BETTER than them. They will pay, PAY for what they've done to me.. and if it's the LAST thing I'll do!

SCIENTISTS TALE 3 (Written by Luma) - The Red One and NetPass

It has been 2 weeks since the creation of the Pals happened. Nothing much happened for those 2 weeks; other than MiiPal causing some conflicts, it wasn't so bad. We decided that we should give them a home, so using the computers we created NetPass. Named after NetPal, it's basically an alternate dimension that Pals can access through a Pal-sized portal near the PluralKit. But before that, we had another operation to do; Cloning NetPal.

I asked the CEO about the cloning idea and he agreed, so we could go ahead with it. The cloning machine was able to clone humans before, but we weren't fully sure with Pals. We thought that since they were simpler life forms, the cloning process would not only be easier, but faster. Unfortunately... It was not.

We went and put NetPal in the cloning machine and activated it.

Then the red one stepped out...

As soon as it came out of the machine with NetPal, it immediately punched NetPal (fucking deserves), attacked the rest of the Pals and started saying he was "Evil NetPal". I'll refer to him as that for the rest of the stories ahead. Evil NetPal was so ruthless that we had to take him to a spare empty room and lock him in. However, as we put him in and walked out the door, MiiPal came rushing in. I seemed to be the only one to notice that. Now, MiiPal and Evil NetPal are locked in that room. Surely, they won't be able to escape.

NOTEPAL TALE 1 (Written by Traplog) - Friendly Friends!

The voices coming from the room were strange...

"Save us and you'll get free cookies"

Were they talking about website cookies? I'd rather not sell my infinite knowledge to others for free thanks

The humans wanted us all to stay away from the room, I don't know why... the things in the place sounded friendly!

Recently I managed to get the pencil out of my head, things seemed a lot darker when I did, the trees lost their leaves and the grass stopped moving, I then put the pencil back.

The weird locked door keeps talking to me... so I finally spoke back to It
"Let us out, you won't regret it!" The weird voice had said while using some sort of ghost voice...
Like ooooooooooooo

"So who even are you?" I asked nicely but I don't think it liked that... "THAT Is none of your concern! But fine I'll talk!"
This sort of dragged on a while... something about being the greatest of all time and how it'll take over THE WORLD!

"So! Will ya let me out?" it said. I thought about It for a while... Then I opened the door.
I shouldn't have done that.

(First sentence is him not wanting to go in the room, Second sentence is him wanting to go in that room)

-Because he's convinced to :D, also rules were made to be broken!!!-

(if it isn't his concern why the fuck did he say it anyways)
-Ego-

(Someone crazy locked in a room talking about taking over the world, oh boy I bet he has good intentions, lemme just get him outta there)

-Notepal just funny like that, for those who want actual reason though he's just really really stup-

SPOTPAL TALE 1 (Written by Luma) - Meeting StreetPal

TIME: 10:57PM

I ran out of the lab. Not in a "I hate it here" way. I just decided to explore, and I would be back by morning.

I saw a sign that said "Warehouse." So I ran there just to look at whatever crap I could find. Eventually I heard a voice. (Text that looks like this is in the Pal language, the language they spoke before they were taught English.)

"Who's there!?" said the voice. It was speaking in Pal-language instead of English, surprisingly.

"Uh, what?"

"I heard footsteps. Who the heck are you?"

"You don't need to be THAT aggressive."

“Alright. Well. Could you find a green box somewhere here? I’m in there and I want to get out.”

“Ok, just wait a second.”

I dug through a bunch of crap left over that could’ve probably exploded if I wasn’t careful.

Eventually, I found the box.

“I found the box!”

“Good, now open it.”

“...can I trust you?”

“Yeah. You can.”

I opened the box. Inside it was... another Pal? It looks like NetPal without a gradient! And it only has one leaf on it’s head.

“Wait... YOU’RE ONE OF MY REPLACEMENTS!” said the NetPal look-alike.

“Replacement?”

“Do you not know?”

“Know what?”

“...God damnit. Seems like none of you people have heard of me...”

“I have no clue what you’re talking about.”

“Here. I’ll explain everything to you. The name is StreetPal, by the way.”

The Factory Pals

Once, a greedy company called “Z’s Creatures” found out about NetPal, and wanted their own pals, so they made ePal, SoundPal, and CamPal. These pals weren’t like how the team expected, so they locked them in a box and hoped to never see them again. It was a painful few years, but eventually Space Dancer found them, but it was too late for ePal, for he died in the box. CamPal and ePal joined the team

Mini Tales

Luma here. Mini Tales are like tales, but smaller. These can be focused on more specific concepts than the BIG LORE stuff (mini tales could be more slice-of-life type stuff. not to be confused with joke tales.)

NetPal messes up the NetPass dialogue (written by luma)

pov: third person

NetPal stands in front of the green screen.

“ok is this correct”
“yeah” said BrowserPal.
“alright, let me get started”
(Take 1)
“Welcome to NetP-“
(a studio light falls down next to him)
“...ass...” said NetPal.
“did we get these mounts off of Temu or something” said BrowserPal.
“yea probably”
(Take 2)
“Welcome to NetPass! This ser-”
(Evil NetPal throws a bucket at him)
“WHAT THE FUCK ARE YOU DOING HERE EVIL NETPAL” said NetPal
“I’M HERE FOR COMEDIC EFFECT” said Evil NetPal
(Take 3)
“Welcome to NetPass! T-“
(notepal backflips onto the camera and then breaks it)
“...kill yourself.”
(Take 4)
“Welcome to NetPass! This service allows you to get StreetPasses off the internet.”
“OH MY GOD IT’S FINALLY DONE” said BrowserPal.
(browserpal plugs the camera into his PC to start editing)
“We finally got this shit worki-”
(The footage is corrupted)
“I give up.”

Joke Tales

Hey Netpass, Traplog here

Joke tales are jokes, They are not canon to the main story so you can kill, destroy, and add whatever you want.

Joke tales don't need to be connected to each other but you can make a sequel to a joke tale if you want

You can even make a joke tale BASED on the main lore but different, for example instead of all the different pals the only pal who gets created is NotePal (the best pal)

Nintenrick Domar JOKE TALE (Written by Traplog) - Pals Not Like Us

Nintenrick has had enough of Netpals shit! It's a diss track after DISS TRACK!
Nah, We gotta go bad... but not DrakePal levels of bad!
I gotta make a diss so good people'll be singing It every day!
And so Nintenrick make the greatest diss track ever

...Psst, I see fanum taxes
ay

Then Pals Not Like Us got number one everywhere and Nintenrick Domar beat Netpal... for now...

NetPal eats Waffles and hates them (Written by Luma)

(FROM THE POV OF NETPAL)

I tried waffles the other day. THEY FUCKING SUCK AND I HATE THEM SO MUCH I HAVE NO CLUE WHO CAME UP WITH THE IDEA OF WAFFLES BUT I WILL CHOKE THEM AND THROW THEM INTO A FUCKING SAWBLADE THAT FUCKIN-
(The FBI has requested that this tale goes unfinished.)

Forcefeeding NetPal Waffles (by healthpal)

from the pov of: healthpal

alright so today, i was eating waffles, when my friend, netpal walked in and asked me “why in the FUCK are you eating waffles, they are such a shit food.”, so i decided to forcefeed him waffles, and then he fucking died (what a bozo, i can eat like 40 waffles and not even throw up smh 🤔)

(Also, I'm currently on the run from the cops, as I killed a man back in 1993, and have only been caught 2 hours ago.)

The story so far...

The story starts when StreetPal is made as a prototype.

StreetPal was created as a test if scientists could make entirely new life forms from scratch. The test was a success, but they wouldn't need StreetPal anymore now that the prototype is done.

They put StreetPal into a box and threw it in an abandoned warehouse.

A month later...

Creation of the Pal Species was about to begin. Using PluralKit, a highly advanced computer software that was made specifically for this purpose and slightly edited data that was used for the creation of StreetPal. They wanted to give every Pal very different traits, personalities and abilities, but they decided to start by making one basic Pal that eventually just ran off because it had nothing to do. Now that they proved they could make Pals, they decided to create more and send them to a room where other scientists could use PluralKit to give them specific abilities. They also decided to teach all of them English due to them seeing the Pals communicate and being curious and fearful that the Pals might not like the scientists and become a threat. They made more and more until one stood out to them:

NetPal.

NetPal was a bit different in a lot of ways, but eventually became the icon of the entire Pal species. Not only did the scientists feel this way, but the Pals also felt this way, eventually making NetPal a leader of the Pals. (Since they were all based of StreetPal, maybe they all felt they missed something, that being StreetPass and NetPal finally brought it with them unaware of Streetpal) (that could work - luma)

A week passes...

They create NetPass, an alternate-dimension-like thing that Pals can access through a small portal near the PluralKit. The Pals don't go in there yet, however.

Later, they decide to clone NetPal for the sake of curiosity and more things to document.

A scientist puts NetPal into a conveniently placed cloning machine, however something malfunctions, creating a red version of NetPal that was evil. It's evil netpal. Evil Netpal attacks the Pals before a scientist rushes in and puts him in a separate room, when MiiPal, another pal created by the scientists, comes rushing forward and jumps into the same room as Evil NetPal. The scientists document this and decide to leave the Pals to do whatever they want for now.

Evil Netpals mission is to take over Netpass though he hasn't done anything towards doing that yet. When MiiPal was created and saw his fellow pals, he decided he didn't like the pals, and so MiiPal joined Evil Netpal.

Later, NotePal frees Evil NetPal and MiiPal, not knowing who they were or what their motives are.

Notepal does not join a side and does not care who he's with, He just likes helping people. (Documenting everything? Trying to understand both sides for the most unbiased knowledge?)

Later, during the middle of the night, SpotPal heads to the warehouse that StreetPal was placed in, and meets streetpal, who explains his situation to her.

At some point In the future DownloadPal kills MiiPal In which Evil Netpal promises them that they'll continue their mission.

Later, MiiPal returns, in the form of a TV due to MiiPal's data being present in the TV. He floats into the room Evil NetPal was put in, and starts to tell Evil NetPal about a plan he had. The plan was to steal ePal's dead body and throw it in the cloning machine. They knew it would malfunction, and with a little luck they could have another antagonist on their side. They did this, and PiratePal was born, being evil from the start.

Another later, Evil NetPal, Pirate Pal, and MiiPal (TV) find SpotPal's data left inside a computer. Despite SpotPal being alive already, they try and figure out something to make another antagonist. Eventually, they make a slightly altered version of SpotPal, and set that version to be D E A D. Then, they brought it to the cloning machine, and you already knew what happens afterwards. Evil SpotPal starts existing.

some funny pal trivia Imao

Pals can eat SD Cards.

CamPal turns all the data into photos before fully consuming

(ActiviPal isn't real he can't hurt you) (he is now :troll: [he isn't] - luma who's too lazy to change the text color) no, zonepal is not a fan of tomato soup

Hey guys netpal here. Also today I have decided to make an email so that you guys can add me to the doc

(NetPal being controlled by like 5 different people which personality are you Imfao such as the film Split (2017))

Fun Fact : Pals not like us was originally going to be the entirety of not like us. Feel free to make It if you want :)

Netpal eats grass very often (vegan?)

I think netpal is an orange (Tralk)

They had planned to make a mini-game in which if you lost netpal would eat your nand

HealthPal can heal you if you get radiowave poisoning or something idk i forgot at this point

The True Origin Story (written by PCjava)

Hey y'all, PCjava here. Here is a little reason on why all of this started. You see, ever since a user decided to use PluraKit for the very first time in Sorunome's NetPass server, I immediately loved the idea of the fact that you can roleplay without switching Discord accounts. So I decided to make a bot called Aljava (which later got turned into Evil NetPal as we know and love today), and all of this started. At one point it was just Evil NetPal and NetPal, but since then Luma, Space Dancer, Traplog, and MrNoobington decided to jump in and make their own pals.

In fact I remember at one point we only had like 4 members in the NetPal Lore channel. Now there are 20, which is actually cool because something I liked and created actually spread across everyone. We have Pals, Spin-off Pals, Non-Pals, and even Barack Obama.

The extremely funny thing is that once in a stream, Soru tried searching up NetPal fanfics and NOBODY made one. So me and everyone who contributed here decided to change that. From the littlest details to entire stories like the one I am writing here. So I just want to thank everyone for helping expand on just the lore of the mascot of a 3DS program I like.

Luma talks about creating the lore

It was hard and not hard at the same time to be honest.

There were a lot of retcons during the first few days of NetPal Lore existing to the point where we had to reboot the entirety of the lore and I wrote like 4 tales.

Making StreetPal exist was hard.

It's super fun to see all of these people collaborating on this giant essay of lore about funny circles based off of 3DS apps that all started because a couple of us were being dumbasses playing around with the PluraKit discord bot (we named the program mentioned in some tales after PluraKit)

The Shitpost Zone

NetPal is writing this

Hey everybody, NetPal here, and idk.. gonna go eat some grass
(not even SD Cards? grass? i won't judge, but weird - Luma)

Hello everybody! I have a YouTube channel now! The channel is @NetPalYT and go subscribe right now to watch your favorite green circle.

we had to get rid of netpal theory it broke the doc

Can I get a big mac with extra cheese and an mpreg on it?

hello chat it is EVIL SPOTPAL!!!! (or HealthPal, i forgot)

july 4th big announcement

What is this big announcement? Netpass update lmao (There was no update.)

b i g

do you like my sword sword sword my diamond sword sword netpal theory is literally breaking the doc thats crazy

Hey guys, space dancer here. I got banned off discord when I jokingly said I was 9 in the netpass server. Don't say taht

BSODPal crashes NASA's PC's! (by rain)

Once upon a time BSODPal said "You know what, Lets BSOD All of NASA's PC's!" So BSODPal did it and made nasa very mad! THE END!
