

Privacy Policy

Our games do not collect any important personal information such as name, phone number, contacts, emails and passwords. By using our Games, Users agree to the collection and use of your personal information as outlined in this Privacy Policy. We do not sell, trade, or rent Users personal identification information to others. Our service partners treat data with full compatibility with GDPR.

Personal identification information

When you install our games and apps, we may collect and record information to enhance the experience and benefits of using our Services. We will collect personal public information from Users only if they voluntarily submit such information to us through our Services. Users can always refuse to supply personal information. In said case, Users should avoid using social network features such as Sharing and Friend invite requests.

Non-personal identification information

We may collect non-personal identification information about Users whenever they interact with our Services. Said information includes —but is not limited to— device type, brand and model, Android OS version, unique device identifiers, location and country.

Personal Information

Personal information collected in accordance with our Services may vary depending on the activity and may include: social networking basic profile information (Apps have a basic connection to a user's Facebook account to ask for permission to post on the user's behalf or to read other fields from the user's timeline or their friends' timelines), Request read permissions (to fill the stream with photos, the user must grant the app two "read permissions" that let the app read the user's photos and their friends' photos), Request publish permissions (the user must grant the app a "publish permission" to share photos).

Analytics, Advertising and Other Services Provided by Other Companies

We may allow other third parties companies to serve advertisements in our Services, provide analytics services or other services for the Users experience. These third party companies may also share this information with their customers and clients. This Privacy Policy does not apply to, and we are not responsible for, third-party cookies, web beacons, or other tracking technologies.

We use certain services that use the Internet to provide ads and generate statistics of the usage of our apps. These services may collect information such as the user's age, location, language, device model and the version of Android. It is important to note that these informations is kept in absolute secrecy. By installing our games, you agree with terms of use of these services that we use.
