

The scene is a baker's kitchen. A flour sack is resting against a shelf filled with other flour sacks, sugar and baking items. The flour sack gets nervous about being turned into a baked dessert and tries to escape through a large wood door that is difficult to open.

You are not going to animate this scene. Just draw a detailed storyboard outlining your story so a modeler/designer could continue the project.