	Having grown up in So. Calif. and as an art major in college, I am a long time lover of Japanese arts and crafts. Our travels took us to other places and my interest in art continued in many fields. But Naples Florida, a favorite winter vacation spot AND having an Ikebana International Chapter, drew our attention when it was time to retire. I soon began lessons in the Sogetsu School . Little did I know that I would become a teacher of the school! My lessons continued with Sensei Mihori and I continue to study as well as teach in Naples. I love teaching and with it I learn. The Sogetsu School allows the creative mind to expand on this beautiful Japanese art. My students find their creativity expands within my classes and we have fun.
