SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION INFORMATION

The American Association of Family and Consumer Sciences/Indiana Affiliate Scholarship has been established for the purpose of recognizing and rewarding collegiate members for excellence in scholastic achievement, leadership, and participation in family and consumer science activities.

Up to three AAFCS/IN Scholarships are available each year, the amount to be determined annually. One scholarship will be awarded to a student in each of the state supported institutions that have a degree granting program in Family and Consumer Sciences.

Full-time undergraduate students at state institutions granting degrees in family and consumer sciences are eligible for this award. Applicants may be current juniors, sophomores, or freshmen. Up to one student at each eligible institution may be awarded the scholarship. Eligible universities will determine awardees based on the criteria noted below.

Criteria:

1. Applicants for the scholarship must be student members of the AAFCS/IN Affiliate.
2. Applicants shall have a B grade point average or better on all college work.
3. Applicants shall be majoring in some area of Family and Consumer Sciences.
4. Applicants shall be full-time undergraduate students and shall have definite plans for a professional career in Family and Consumer Sciences.
