Welcome to this season of the Falcon Cast, Where we interview the students and the faculty staff to better learn of what the university has to offer, with activities outside of a class, time management, communities and personal growth, responsibilities and clubs, and the sports they promote. We check out organizations. We explore what it means to be a part of something bigger than yourself.

Like a team, our hosts Jeremy, Fredo, and Dave, join us in interviews exploring the FSU craze.
