

Parchment HS/MS Athletic Eligibility Proposal

2022-23 Academic Year

Trimester Eligibility

1. High school student-athletes must pass four out of five of their classes from the previous trimester to be eligible for the following trimester.
 - a. High school student-athletes that pass less than four classes in the previous trimester are ineligible to participate in the following trimester (for sixty school days).
 - b. Student-athletes are only allowed to make up one class for athletic participation over the summer; therefore any student that fails more than two classes will be ineligible for the following trimester.
2. Middle school student-athletes must pass five out of six of their classes from the previous trimester to be eligible for the following trimester.
 - a. Middle school student-athletes that pass less than five classes in the previous trimester are ineligible to participate in the following trimester

Weekly Eligibility

1. Student-athletes must be passing all of their classes every scheduled eligibility check in order to compete in athletic competitions for the upcoming week.
2. Student-athletes failing a class at the eligibility check will not be allowed to compete in athletic competitions.
 - a. Student-athletes will be eligible to practice and participate in team activities if they successfully complete the progress report requirements (see below)

Eligibility Reports

The Parchment athletic department will run two eligibility reports per month. The eligibility reports will be run on the 2nd and 4th Thursday of every month during the academic year with the exception of December and April (one report per month in December and April). Student-athletes that appear on the eligibility report as not passing a class will be ineligible to participate in competitions for the entirety of the following week (Monday-Sunday). The student-athlete and parent/guardian will be notified Friday if the student-athlete is ineligible..

- In order to participate in team activities during the week of ineligibility, student-athletes must complete the progress report requirement daily for the entire week.
 - Failure to complete the progress report every day will result in student-athletes no longer being allowed to participate in team activities for the remainder of the week.
- Student-athletes that appear on the eligibility report will receive a grade check the Friday after they became ineligible.

Parchment HS/MS Athletic Eligibility Proposal

2022-23 Academic Year

- o If the student-athlete is passing all of their classes at the grade check, they will be eligible to compete the following week.
- o If the student-athlete is still not passing all of their classes at the grade check, they will be ineligible to compete the entire following week (Monday-Sunday) and the following weeks eligibility report will serve as a grade check.

Progress Report Requirements

- Student-athletes that are failing one class are NOT eligible to participate in competitions for the entire week.
- Ineligible student-athletes must complete a progress report to participate in team activities including practices and sitting on the bench for games (not dressed).
- Failure to comply with the progress report requirement will result in the student-athlete being ineligible for all activities for the remainder of the week.
- The coaching staff may remove a student-athlete from the program once they have shown up on the eligibility report for three weeks during the current season or if they continually fail to complete the daily progress reports.
