Choose a Payment Schedule That's Right for You!

Texas Deaf Chamber Now Offers Convenient, Budget-Friendly Payment Options!

In response to requests for an easy, budget-friendly dues renewal program, Texas Deaf Chamber is offering members the ability to join and renew their annual membership automatically, using a choice of payment plan options. This seamless system will save you time, be easy on your budget, safeguard your information, and eliminate interruptions to your benefits.

How to Participate

To participate in this new program, complete the form below

When you submit your payment plan option form via fax or mail, Texas Deaf Chamber will register you for an easy pay renewal plan and automatically renew your membership each time (per the option you choose) using the credit card information you provide. As long as you remain a member, Texas Deaf Chamber will:

- charge your card as noted in your payment plan selection
- continue to renew your membership using the selected payment schedule until you request otherwise
- contact you if your credit card has expired or if any difficulties are encountered during processing.

Note: This payment plan is only available for the following Membership Investment Tier 2 and above including la carta add ons.

Membership Dues will be charged in installment payments and automatically renewed annually per the option chosen when opting into this plan.

(For example, if you select quarterly installments for annual dues and your annual investment is $650, your first quarterly dues charge will be $162.50 and subsequent installment payments will be the same until the next renewal date).
