

Tim Holtcamp

Tim Holtcamp was appointed to the Board of Education in 2015. Prior to his appointment, he served on various committees including the district's Capital Planning, Policy, and Accreditation Committees. Mr. Holtcamp was reappointed to the Madison Board of Education in 2020. He currently serves as President of the Board of Education. He holds a Bachelor of Electrical Engineering degree from Auburn University and is employed as a Program Manager at Parsons in Huntsville. Mr. Holtcamp was raised in Huntsville and Madison County. In 1997, he and his wife, Misty, moved to Madison. Tim and Misty's youngest child attends Liberty Middle School while their two oldest attend Auburn University.