

Revocation of Letters & Awards

Revocation of Letters & Awards

A member who receives a MSHSL violation(s) (chemical or code of conduct) and becomes ineligible for an event due to this violation, is ineligible to letter and receive awards for the activity in which the violation is served. If serving of the violation takes place in one activity and carries into the next activity to be completed, only the first activities lettering and awards are affected.