

Module 7 Section 3
Guided Reading Questions

The War at Home

Main Idea: World War I spurred social, political, and economic change in the United States.

Supporting Idea #1 Government Oversees the West

Why was the WIB established?

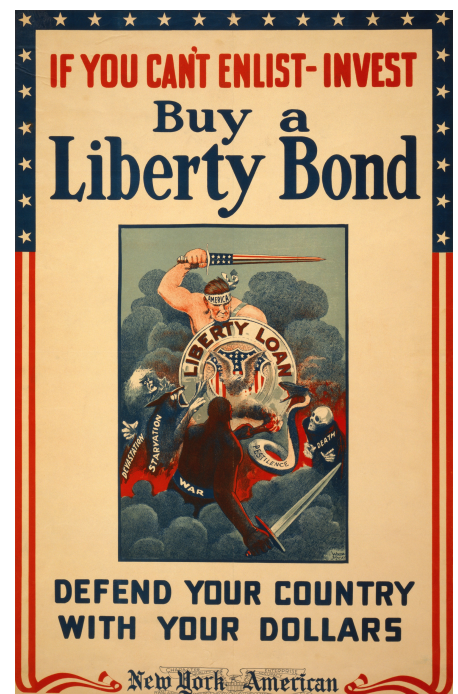

How did the war affect the U.S. economy?

How did U.S. civilians respond to the war?

Supporting Idea #2 Selling the War

How did the government finance the war?

How did the government build support for the war?

Supporting Idea #3 Attacks on Civil Liberties Increase

What groups were the the main targets of anti-immigrant hysteria during the war?

Module 7 Section 3
Guided Reading Questions

How did Espionage and Sedition Acts affect civil liberties in the United States?

Supporting Idea #4 The War Encourages Social Change

What was the Great Migration?

What new opportunities did the war offer to women?

What were the effects of the worldwide flu epidemic that erupted during the war?

Create and complete the diagram (Organize Information) from page 345 in the space below.