We respect your privacy and are committed to protecting your personal information. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, and safeguard your data when you use our mobile application.

Information We Collect:

- Personal Information: We may collect personal information such as your name, email address, phone number, and other details you provide when you register an account or use certain features of the app.
- Usage Information: We automatically collect certain information about your device, including your IP address, device type, operating system, and usage patterns within the app.
- Location Information: With your consent, we may collect your precise or approximate location information to provide location-based services.
- Cookies and Tracking Technologies: We use cookies and similar tracking technologies to enhance your experience and gather information about how you interact with the app.

How We Use Your Information:

- To provide and maintain our mobile application.
- To personalize your experience and deliver relevant content.
- To analyze usage patterns and improve our services.
- To communicate with you, respond to your inquiries, and provide customer support.
- To send you promotional offers, updates, and other marketing communications with your consent.

Biometric Data Collection and Usage

- We collect facial biometric data, including facial features and expressions, solely for the purpose of enhancing user experience within the app. This data is securely stored locally on the user's device and is not shared with any third parties. Users have full control over their face data and can delete it at any time through the app's settings.

Data Sharing and Disclosure:

- We may share your personal information with third-party service providers who assist us in operating our app, conducting our business, or servicing you.
- We may disclose your information in response to lawful requests by public authorities or to comply with applicable laws and regulations.
- We may transfer your information in connection with a merger, acquisition, or sale of assets.

Data Security:

- We implement appropriate technical and organizational measures to protect your data against unauthorized access, alteration, disclosure, or destruction.
- Despite our efforts to safeguard your information, please note that no method of transmission over the Internet or electronic storage is completely secure.

Your Choices:

- You may opt out of receiving promotional communications from us by following the unsubscribe instructions provided in such communications.
- You can control location tracking settings on your device or through the app's settings.

Children's Privacy:

- Our app is not intended for children under the age of 9, and we do not knowingly collect personal information from children.

Changes to This Policy:

- We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. Any changes will be posted on this page, and the effective date will be indicated at the top of the policy.
