

Feel free to comment to add orgs, and I'll add them!

This list courtesy of BeNOLA (Black Education for New Orleans) of BIPOC run direct orgs:

Black NOLA Moms

- Network supporting Black New Orleans moms to become successful parents and financially self-sufficient. Donations are used to provide direct cash to Black Moms/Families to continue to survive in these unprecedented times. Donate: Cashapp- $BlackNewOrleansMom or PayPal- @BlackNewOrleansMom

Our Voice Nuestra Voz

- Black and Latinx parent organizing network distributing supplies and aid to undocumented, justice involved, and young people who may be left out of governmental solutions. Donate: <https://ovnv.org/donate>

House of Tulip

- Nonprofit collective creating housing solutions for members of the trans and gender nonconforming community of Louisiana. Currently trying to respond to 600 additional requests for mutual aid. Donate: <https://houseoftulip.org/make-a-donation>

Mutual Aid Response Network

- Mutual aid network led by Native, Creole, queer and trans folx who have been supporting disaster preparedness and recovery efforts in Louisiana since 2012. All donations to this fund will support Hurricane Ida relief. Donate: <https://donorbox.org/ida>

ReThink NOLA

- Provides leadership development and political education to New Orleans youth of color. Currently, Rethink is supporting over 60 community members with housing, food, and vital supplies. Donate: Click Here or send your donation via Zelle to Rethink at operations@therethinkers.org.

Indigenous Tribes (from AGIP site):

- Atakapa Ishak Tribe
- Isle de Jean Charles Band of Biloxi Chitimacha Choctaw
- United Houma Nation
- Pointe-Aux-Chien Indian Tribe
- Grand Caillou/Dulac Band
- Bvlbancha Public Access list of tribes in Louisiana

Serving Undocumented families not eligible for FEMA relief

ALAS: Educational Access for Immigrant & Court-Involved Youth

- Organization working with students in fully undocumented families who are not eligible for FEMA assistance get food, shelter, transport & home repair.

See also BirthMark Doulas (in Mutual Aid Orgs)

Local Non-profits

Culture Aid NOLA

- Local nonprofit serving food to the community since 2020. Partnering with larger orgs in this post-Ida time to feed the community, including free grocery giveaways at large outdoor venues.

Feed the Second Line

- An org working to feed and help the culture bearers of NOLA. After Ida, they've been helping patch roofs, feed the community and much more. Direct impact for folks in the city. (They also have a solar powered project to help restaurants survive power outages as happened with Ida.)

Louisiana SPCA

- Not affiliated with the national org - an independent org that has been doing rescues after Ida and in need of emergency funds to provide food, shelter and medical care to animals in need.

Crescent City Farmers' Market Hurricane Ida Relief

- Local farmer's market is raising money to donate directly to local farmers, fisherpeople, and food producers. Many agricultural areas of SE LA were hit by Ida and need support to rebuild to continue feeding the community.

City Park Disaster Relief Fund

- The park is home to the world's largest collection of live oaks in the world and a staple of New Orleans. The park has to raise nearly 90% of its operating budget each year, leaving few resources for capital improvements and disaster relief. This fund will help with Ida clean-up.

Mutual Aid Orgs

Another Gulf is Possible

- This page has a link to mutual aid orgs to donate to (many of which are listed here), donate resources, and other Hurricane Ida recovery information.

Imagine Water Works

- Powerhouse on the ground org that directed over $90K of mutual aid funds around SELA after a few days post-hurricane through direct supply distribution, FEMA paperwork set-ups and computer labs, and so much more.

Down The Bayou (DTB) Mutual Aid Fund

- Working in Lafourche Parish - donate and connect with them on IG. Providing direct support to families in need.

M4U NOLA

- Mutual aid org on Twitter and IG providing direct funds to people who need it in the community after Ida.

Birthmark Doulas

- A doula collective supporting folks who are pregnant and postpartum; during this time are providing mutual aid to Black/undocumented persons who are pregnant or postpartum.

Direct Support

Go Fund Me to Help a Friend Rebuild her Home

- A friend and her family had their roof destroyed from Ida and need help rebuilding. As many may not know, home insurance is very expensive in SE LA, hence this campaign. This is a woman that pivoted during COVID from hairstylist to urban farmer - she is incredibly tenacious and her ingenuity is unmatched.

Ida Relief for Small Black Neighborhoods

- A Go-Fund me to help folks in small communities in SE LA that don't get the attention of NOLA. These are black communities, many of which have older folks residing in them who could use our help and don't get the attention like other communities.

Funds for People of the Bayou

- Started by a NOLA Chef (Melissa Martin of Mosquito Supper Club) and run by folks from the impacted community who know the needs of the people. Funds will be directly given to families in bayou parishes who lost so much because of Ida.

Ida Support Network

- An org directly supporting people on the ground with housing, transportation, and direct financial relief. They update things regularly on their IG handle. You can give there or via the website.