

Library Book Donation Guidelines

We are grateful for your interest in donating library books. Donated books may be given to students and their families and added to classroom or school libraries. Books will be added to school libraries only after careful consideration to adhere to our District Library Book Selection Criteria and that they enhance the library's collection.

Before donating, please check the criteria below. Donations will be accepted after school librarians, principals, and designated teachers have reviewed the books in partnership with the district librarian.

Thank you again for your generosity!
