

* Trigger Warning ***

My project encompasses the complex nature of forensic investigations. Utilizing the capabilities within forensic entomology to identify human remains that were retrieved from the crop of fly larvae. In addition using methods such as the STR AmpF $\ell$ STR Kit to allow researchers to compare the DNA to a missing persons father.

Adam Cronin (crow-n-in)- a Forensic Case Report

References:

de Lourdes Chávez-Briones, M., Hernández-Cortés, R., Díaz-Torres, P.,

Niderhauser-García, A., Ancer-Rodríguez, J., Jaramillo-Rangel, G., &

Ortega-Martínez, M. (2012). Identification of human remains by dna analysis of the gastrointestinal contents of fly larvae. Journal of Forensic Sciences, 58(1), 248–250.

<https://doi.org/10.1111/j.1556-4029.2012.02279.x>

ITP. ITP | Morphology Diagram. (n.d.). <https://idtools.org/morphology.cfm>

National Institutes of Health. (n.d.). Visible proofs: Forensic Views of the body: Galleries:

Technologies: Life cycle of the black blow fly. U.S. National Library of Medicine.

<https://www.nlm.nih.gov/exhibition/visibleproofs/galleries/technologies/blowfly.html>

Vo, N. (2025). Genetic Genealogy in Forensics; Identification of Missing Persons and Mass Disaster Victims; DNA in Immigration and Human Trafficking; DNA Canvass. Personal Collection of Nguyen Vo, Wilfrid Laurier University