

Colony One: NPCs

Convicts

Alyssa Harbin

Enemy of Cassiopeia.

“Dislikes” Dan.

Queen bee, socialite, collector of people, strangely likeable despite being kind of a terrible person.

Bao Nguyen

Little Bear. Former courier, objects to Patrick’s leadership of the gang but is not currently opposing him directly.

Bel

Girl who was shived on the Dropship during re-entry. Currently in the infirmary.

Blaise Villiers

Ally of Dan.

Dislikes Cassie, Marielle.

Savvy, perceptive and streetwise, far kinder than anyone with his upbringing has any right to be. Rumoured to be an expert knife fighter.

Charmaine

Enemy of Marielle.

Dislikes Tish (but is unable to move against her directly) and possibly Partisan.

Has her own gang--Charmaine’s Crew, be shocked by her creativity)--but pretty in ways that girls who come up hard usually aren’t. Has a gift for attracting thwack-olytes (male and female), no one seems to know how and the thwackolytes aren’t talking.

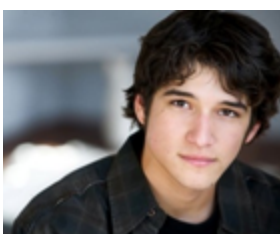

Conrad King

Ally of Patrick.

Dislikes Marielle, Tish, Wade.

Talkative, cunning, suave, positive to the point of inciting violence. Creatively vengeful. Strangely enamoured with pre-war Earth animals.

Corey Sharpton

Enemy of Dan.

Dislikes Marielle.

Organised crime royalty. Angry, vengeful, prone to letting his temper get the better of him.

Darren McCauley

Friend of Cassiopeia.

Dislikes Chandra.

Former doctor. Intelligent, arrogant, patient, scary moral compass.

Dixon Barrett Aka Partisan

Ally of Chandra.

Likes Patrick, Tish.

Dislikes Dan.

Revolutionary figurehead. Inspiring, philosophical, calculating, respected, starting to believe his own hype.

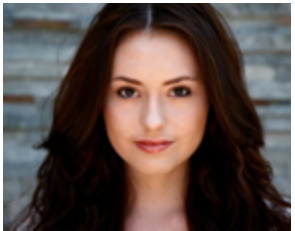

Letitia "Tish" Warren

Ally of Marielle.

Likes Cassiopeia, Partisan.

Dislikes Conrad, Patrick, Wade.

Business oriented, values her word, favour driven, strives in chaotic environments.

Maddy Jameson

Enemy of Val.

Former government informant (or secret police maybe), why is she still alive? Possibly protected by the Marines.

Opal

Enemy of Patrick.

Dislikes Val.

Charming, funny, beautiful, manipulative (but not as good at it as she thinks), scorned. Imprisoned for unknown reasons. Maybe a sympathetic victim?

Jay-T

Dislikes Wade, Val, Patrick.

Wade Ritter

Enemy of Chandra.

Likes Val.

Dislikes Conrad, Tish, Mari.

Despicable, dastardly, self-hating, jealous bully. Slightly paranoid but a master at playing all the angles as a result. Always comes out in front, always makes a profit. Has some level of protection from the Marines.

Wei Chung Aka The Fiend

Ally of Val.

Likes Chandra.

Loyal, taciturn, clever, philosophical, and unusually sensitive. Veteran of underground No Limits fighting. May self identify as an artist. Blindingly fast.

Marina Sanchez

Friend of Cassie's. Cassie may have killed Marina's father in the operation which resulted in Cassie's imprisonment. Ridiculously hot (I mean, just look at her).

Plus about a hundred others (many of them nameless arseholes).

Convict Gangs

Charmaine's Crew

Little Bears

"Puny" Paul Narindran

Little bear. Chosen by Conrad on the basis that he's a "strong man."

Michael "Digger" Di Giorno

Little bear. Chosen by Conrad on the basis that he's a "strong man."

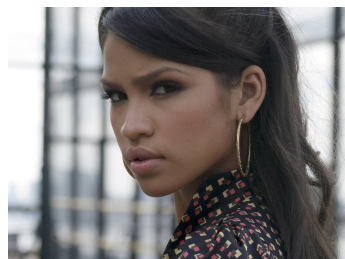

Basam "Bugz" Al Syria (Deceased)

Little bear. Chosen by Conrad on the basis that he's a "strong man."

Screaming Lions

Snarling Wolves

Edith "Edie" Palmer

Imprisoned for Aggravated Assault (2), Greivous Bodily Harm (2), and Unlawful Possession of a Restricted Item. Convict rumour is that she maimed a couple of Marines to the point where they had to be RFMed with a modified fire suppression device to avenge a Snarling Wolf they'd killed. She never talks about it but she definitely gets more than her fair share of attention from the marines.

Marines (20 marines)

The Marine contingent consists of two commissioned officers (Lieutenant, Ensign), two specialists, 4 non-commissioned officers (Warrant Officers) and twelve regular Marines.

There are two a Squads of eight marines, each of which breaks down into two Sections of four Marines (including a Warrant Officer). Squad One contains the Sections commanded by WO1 and WO3 and Squad Two contains those commanded by WO2 and WO4. The Section commanded by WO1 is a recon element. The Section commanded by WO2 is a special weapons element.

A note for military minded peeps: I've deliberately mashed up ranks and structures from different navies to create the Marines because I didn't want them to be a US Marines or a Royal Marines (or whatever) analogue. Hope it's not too confusing.

Of course you're welcome to call them all "screws" or "shitheads" if you like.

Lt Katrina Miller

Ensign Sebastian Prieux

Specialist Isis Al Nasri (Medic)

Specialist Hamish Bryer (Electronic Warfare, including communications)

Chief Warrant Officer (WO1) Noel Wilson Aka "Top"

Mn Tyler

Warrant Officer (WO2) Tara Hammond

Marine Sean McGregor

Likes Gvn McEachern

A Marine from Section One of Squad Two (under the command of WO2). His service record indicates that a terrifying number of convicts have been killed “Resisting Orders” or “Attempting to Escape” while they were in his care. Either he’s been extraordinarily unlucky or he’s the kind of Marine who doesn’t think convicts deserve any rights or dignity.

Warrant Officer (WO3)

Mn Florey

Marine currently allocated as Spc Al Nasri’s bodyguard for the retrieval mission.

WO3’s section had one Marine seriously injured by a tube plant, he’s in the infirmary and most of the convicts think he’s dead.

Junior Warrant Officer (WO4)

Administrators

Governor Laura McEachern

Likes Mn McGregor, Patrick, Dan, Val

Governor McGregor was promoted to lead this expedition from her previous position as a Magistrate. While serving in the judiciary Magistrate McGregor (as she then was) was responsible for neutralising resistance. She's known to be an advocate of "Divide and Rule" policing and has been successful in provoking internal conflicts that lead to the dissolution or arrest of cells in the past.

Magistrate Marcus Ruffolo

Dislikes Gvn McEachern, Mn MacGregor, Dixon Barrett

Civilians

Doctor Ulysses Grant

Maria Vasquez (Engineer)
