

MaryClaire Parker 2001

Anticipation Worksheet The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn

Directions: Before beginning The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn by Mark Twain, answer A (agree) or D (disagree) to the following statements, and be prepared to discuss your answers in class. After our class discussion, you will then choose one question to write a one page response to, expressing your feelings and opinions.

Statements: Answers: 1. In life we always get what we deserve in the end. _____

2. Running away is the best way to solve our problems. _____

3. People of different races can't get along with each other. _____

4. Life always produces it's own problems and trials to solve and overcome. _____

5. Having a good home with loving parents prevents most of life's problems. _____

6. Playing is more important than working. _____

7. It's not fun to learn and go to school. _____

8. Children must have someone to take care of them or they won't survive. _____

9. People seek out their own little adventures in life. _____