

Maria A. Kithcart, MMin, MAML, MBA hails from Greenville, South Carolina where she resides with her son and Shih Tzu mix Sophie. She possesses 30 years of experience in higher education administration and over 20 years of teaching at the collegiate level. Maria holds earned graduate degrees from Southern Wesleyan, Webster University, and University of Phoenix, and her areas of focus include business, leadership, management, marketing, ethics, and human resources. In addition to serving as Chair of the Business Department at SMC, she serves as the Early Worship Leader at Greer First Presbyterian Church and is a consultant with Sherbert & Associates, an internationally-recognized HR consulting firm based in the Upstate of SC. Her hobbies include reading, watching WW2 and Cold War documentaries, and researching the life and work of Marshal of the Soviet Union Vasily Chuikov for her blog (authenticleaderchuikov.net).