Home economics—Cooking—Cookbooks—1800—-Latin American—General works

DDC: 641 Food & drink

Main subject heading: Hispanic Americans — Food.

I believe this subject heading best embodies the subject because it is localized to the Latino experience, but highly centered on the food aspect, rather than other parts of social life and customs.

Social pathology. Social and public welfare. Criminology—Criminology—Crimes and offenses—Offenses against public safety—Terrorism—Nuclear terrorism—United States—General works

DDC: 363 Other social problems & services

Main subject heading: Nuclear terrorism
I followed the LCC to determine this best subject heading here. Given that it goes down the path of social pathology, the “terrorism” aspect of the subject heading seemed the central focus.

Main subject heading: Internet Industry in the United States.
The other subject headings were focused around specific corporations and this subject heading captured the entire body of the internet industry development.

Summary:

Rio Nicholson

This experience has been an interesting and at times frustrating one. I have learned a great deal about cataloging, and the attention to detail which is required has constantly caused me to stumble. I have learned, through the course of our assignments, to slow down and take a look at each detail, to compare and to use multiple sources to determine the correct information.

I regularly found myself flipping back to our guides to ensure I had the correct information. I feel like there is so much more to explore and learn in this subject, and am interested in moving forward with further developing my cataloging skills.
