

Communication Framework

The Flocktown-Kossmann School is committed to ensuring open communication. All staff members will engage in positive two-way communication by connecting families to student learning through sharing data, providing strategies to support learning at home, and allowing students to advocate for their education. While the staff at FKS will be working to meet this goal, we ask all parents and guardians to follow the communication guidelines listed below to ensure successful resolution of any questions and/or concerns.

- On matters concerning Curriculum and Instruction:

- On matters concerning Special Education:

- On matters concerning discipline:

- On matters concerning Technology:

- On matters concerning Health:

- On matters concerning Food Service:

- On matters concerning Transportation:

To resolve all matters only after you have followed all the levels above or if your area is not listed above:

- Your child's homeroom teacher should be your first contact.
- The school office should be your second contact.
- The Assistant Principal/Principal should be your third contact.

For teacher emails and phone numbers, please visit the FKS website under the Staff Directory.
